

Likha Riza

Likha was the cutest senior whose obsession with dance was unparalleled. She was Miss K-Pop freak who was known as the Dancing Queen of Subansiri. Once she would set her mind to mastering a dance step, she would only take rest after achieving perfection.

Marchy Kasshyap

Marchy was a gem of a person and her caring nature was what made her so different. One would never find her frowning and this is what made her so endearing. Many of us will miss her a lot.

Nivranshu Baruah

Nivranshu was the social butterfly. He was free-spirited, ambitious and quirky. His love for music and theatre helped him garner a lot of appreciation from the Aviators.

Orihona S. Bikash

Orihona was a dancer whose grace always stole the hearts of the audience. Her confidence was admirable. She was an influential prefect and a caring senior.

Partha Saikia

Partha was talented and proficient at swimming, dancing and painting. He even dabbled in volleyball. His interest in fashion will be missed by many.

Rashika Malpani

Rashika was equally dedicated towards her academics as well as her Instagram life!! Please give her a full scholarship for her uninhibited focus and dedication towards both!! We are sure she will leave a mark wherever she goes.

Saptarshi Acharjee

The handsome House Prefect of Dhansiri will be remembered the most for his smile and skills at mathematics. A happy-go-lucky boy, Saptarshi was always supported by every junior. We wish the cricket star of the house the very best.

Sempisang Toy

Sempi was 'The Prefect without a Badge'. He excelled at MUN, quizzing, Round Square, Dramatics, and the list goes on and on. A big hearted person with a treasure trove of witty remarks, his biggest contribution was the inception of AVS MUN and Erudite. He will always be remembered as an important asset to the school.

Shenella Ann Watson

Shenella was bold, outspoken, approachable and always wore her heart on her sleeve. Loyal and friendly towards her core group, she loved to sing.

Shivam Kalwar

Shivam was the oldest kid in school who achieved some astonishing feats. His years at AVS helped him garner wisdom and though he looked like a tough nut to crack, he was a genuinely nice guy. His love for Dhansiri House was enviable and he will always be remembered for keeping us united.

Sieyina Meru

Sieyina was all about the intellect. Calling her a bookworm would be an understatement. She had a knack for writing. She will be remembered for her obsession with hygiene.

Srishti Kayum Pegu

Srishti always knew the right thing to do and say. She carried herself with grace and elegance. She was the inspiring House Captain of Bhoroli who was very approachable.

Tamanna Tahrin Ahmed

“And the Best Actress Award goes to....!” We all hope to hear this someday about Tamanna. Perfectly timed histrionics on stage and off it, she was dramatic and competitive. She was the perfect recipe for greatness in the film industry!!

Tarana Pradhan Lama

Tarana was optimism personified. She was sweet and crazy at the same time. She was a K-Pop fanatic and always made everyone smile with her antics.

Toko Jirmin

Jirmin was an impressive caricaturist. She was also very creative. She was known for dancing really well and for being a die-hard K-Pop fan.

Trisha Barua

Trisha was a go-getter and very friendly. Her unrelenting hard work as the House Captain of Jinari and her guidance and involvement in sports and cultural activities won many laurels for the Jinarians. Her ‘titaura’ craving was one of her best kept secrets!!

Yayum Toko

Yayum was a part of the 'Bangtan ARMY' and was a devoted K-Pop fan. She was blunt, witty and above all genuine. She would always speak her mind and was well-intentioned.

Aichea Victoria A. Sangma

Aichea was the Garo silent killer who killed people with her deadly humour and charm. She was sweet yet firm. Though usually soft spoken, when it came to singing, she would transform into a different person, oozing poise and confidence, and leave everyone mesmerised.

Arpit Agarwal

Arpit was the legendary bowler of AVS. He was also regarded as the living embodiment of sarcasm. We will miss the way he used to entertain us.

Aseng Tayeng

Aseng was the mysterious yet amusing science student who was always seen with her two Namdang buddies. Her love for K-Pop and Troye Sivan knew no bounds. She usually didn't talk much, but she was a warm and funny person and could make anyone laugh with her bizarre ways.

Avinash Pratim Sarmah

Avinash worked hard as a sciencee and did justice to his role as the Captain of the Media Centre. A fun-loving individual who was obsessed with technology. His dedication towards his work was also remarkable.

Biswajit Pritam Saha

Bishwajeet had high regard for morals. He was a natural swimmer who glided like a fish when he dived into the pool. Though he appeared to be soft-spoken, he was an ambivert.

Bommi Rebom Ngucho

Bommi or as the girls called him 'the cutest kid of class 12' was very passionate about his flute as well as his 3 pointers on the basketball court. He was a restless soul and immune to practically everything. Nevertheless, he was one of the most hardworking science students.

Debaashish Chingakhm

Debaashish could adapt to any situation that he faced. He possessed an aura that could make anyone feel comfortable. He was a skilled guitarist and obsessed over Japanese culture.

Deep Ngangom

Deep was the coolest sciencee in Namdang House. He managed taekwondo and science at the same time. He was enthusiastic and was often seen taking rounds of the House with his headphones on.

Devangana Baruah

Devangana was a very hardworking sciencee. She was innately sweet and extremely humble. She was always there to lend a helping hand and would crack a lot of jokes.

Devansh Gupta

Devansh was the Academic Captain of Lohit House. He was dedicated, passionate and committed towards everything that he set his mind to. He was an important part of AVS MUN. He had many feathers in his cap.

Devyam Seal

Devyam was an avid fan of DC Comic. He was also a Potterhead. He had a way of standing out in any crowd. He was knowledgeable about pop-culture. His charming nature will be remembered by us all.

Diya Nath

Diya was the sweet and simple senior. She was always kind to others. Though she talked less, she could be an interesting companion. She had a warm smile and always provided an attentive ear to anyone who wanted to talk about something. Though a day scholar, she supported the girls in the house.

Dronashish Goswami

Dronashish was a fitness freak. He brought glory to the school by winning the District Championship in badminton. Though he was quiet as a person, he could crack funny jokes.

Farial Shahin

Farial was a petite young girl with a big heart whose dimples never failed to make us smile. She was outspoken and would not hesitate from voicing her opinions. Gigi Hadid was her love and everyone knew that no one could mess with her when she was in a nasty mood.

Jian Moji Jini

Jian was the sciencee who never quit trying despite the odds. He always persevered and was cheerful from dawn till dusk. He was also a responsible Manas House Captain.

Kapinjal Sharma

Kapinjal was known for his calmness. He was a guitarist whose music spoke volumes. His ability to comfort everyone around him was always appreciated. Juggling science and western band practices made him the perfect multi-tasker.

Krishnav Saraf

Krishnav managed science and the responsibility of an Event Management Prefect with elan. He believed in making the impossible achievable. He was also known for his passion towards everything that he put his mind to.

Kushal Sureka

Kushal always set the perfect example for all the squash players. He was strong headed as well as fun loving. He could be approached any time. His presence would put all of us at ease.

Nilimoy Das

Nilimoy was one of the most dedicated House Prefect of Dhansiri. He had a vision for the House and defended the lion whenever it was required. He was very approachable and extremely loyal as a person.

Nishika Agarwal

Nishika was very hard-working and gave precedence to academics. She was also a dedicated EM Prefect. She was the Table Tennis Captain for girls and was known for being approachable.

Nitya Bhatt

“Curly hair like she doesn’t care!” But of course, she does. Nitya just knew when to pin up her hair and pull the Reds up with her undefeatable spirit. It would just take a puff of her little sparkle to spread a smile across all beings- from her little pup Pyro, to us Jinarians!

Nuby Tamin

Nuby was a dreamer. Her heart was in football as well as in art and music. She was the Football Captain of the School and we will miss her a lot.

Ojas Jyoti Borah Hazarika

Ojas was a remarkable tennis player. He was reserved as a person. His serious exterior hid a fun-loving interior. He was a good sportsman as well as an able Manas prefect.

Pratyush Deka

Pratyush was a normal guy who loved to enjoy life. His friendly nature and the ability to crack jokes at mundane or serious occasions will be missed. He was also good at encouraging everyone around him.

Reeshica Singh

Reeshica was the unofficial March Past Captain whose command and advice always helped the Suzeknights achieve their highest. Though she was very serious about academics, there were times when she loved to have fun. She was one of the most pleasant and kind-hearted seniors.

Snigdha Bharadwaz

Snigdha was a lovely girl. The little known fact about her was that she was a great dancer. A very sweet person who was always there when needed. She also had a beautiful smile.

Syeda Rabab Shahana

Rabab was a versatile singer and contributed enormously at the Inter-House Music Competitions. She was calm and composed. Juniors will always remember her for her kindness and helpfulness in times of trouble.

Tadar Yaza

Yaza would be seen either dancing to K-Pop beats or being a volley champ. Even though she seemed like a quiet person, she was a fun person to be around. Despite the tough exterior, she was kind and sweet.

Tenzin Munsel

Munsel was a great person with impressive skills in basketball and swimming. Despite being an enthusiastic science student, his sleeping records and anime collection were way better than his results! His legendary UNO skills will never be forgotten by Namdang.

Tushar Das

Tushar was a sensitive soul whose love for music was admirable. He would strum his guitar and serenade the crowd at the WMH. He was soft-spoken but multi-talented.

Veeradittyia Podder

The House Captain of Dhansiri who always had the perfect rebuttal for any argument and could orate any and everywhere. One could see him carrying his squash kit to the court everyday which reflected his desire to get fit. He was very conscientious and extremely approachable.

Tenzing Tsering Bhutia

Bhut was a creature from another planet. He was the only Tibetan in Lohit and often sang Tibetan songs to himself. He also showed his outstanding traditional dance moves. He was a football fanatic as well.

Akhilesh Bora

Akhilesh was the life of Dhansiri. He always made us laugh. He was a good goal-keeper and also played the tabla very well. He will always be remembered by everyone as 'Akhil-da Great'

Arhant Terang

Arhant grew a lot at AVS, morally as well as physically. Undeniably, the tallest senior of Namdang. He was the backbone of the house football team and also an accomplished basketball player. He proved many critics wrong with his desire to be a success.

Ankita Das

Ankita always knew how to bring a smile on our faces with her great sense of humour. Although she was not an official prefect but in our hearts, the Reds will always remember her as a great leader. Juniors respected her as she felt their sadness during morning conditioning as she would reduce their jogging rounds!

Avneet Kaur Arora

Avneet was our Creative Punjabi Tadka who made sure our house was punctual and well-behaved. Her sweet and patient presence always pushed us to do our best. This prefect not only strove to achieve perfection but she made sure that we did it together as a House. Her talent in art and her creativity made her stand apart from the crowd.

Balkirat Kaur

Balkirat was the craziest of the lot. Blessed with the skills to prevent situations from going haywire, she was the go to person for many of us. We will forever remember her smiling face with a lot of fondness.

Dakshyaratna S. Thapa

Dakshyaratna was one of the most loved and respected sportspersons. He was the Soccer Captain of our school. He loved football and indulged in showing off his crazy dribbling skills at the field like Lionel Messi. He would constantly pester the dame to give him her phone so that he could keep up with the latest soccer news.

Dhritee Goswami

Dhritee was our Dancing Queen who definitely felt the beats of the tambourine. She was spirited, lively and a great contributor to the Jinarian achievements despite her being a day scholar.

Divyana Das

Divyana was the boss-lady of Kopili. She was an ardent One Piece fan who believed that it was the best manga or anime ever.

Markio Dota

Markio amazed us with his skills on and off the soccer field. His craziness eased every tense situation. His ability to impersonate people especially teachers will never be forgotten. He will fondly be remembered as 'Toni' by us.

Mesanhu Kaurrita

Mesanhu was the party monster of Namdang. His company was enjoyed by everyone. He was the best person to approach when in trouble.

Nambam Ryan Iangrai

Ryan was very determined and verbose. He voiced his opinions whenever required and refrained from interfering in worthless matters. He believes in working hard and letting the success make all the noise. He will surely be missed!

Nandini Garodia

Nandini was the Editor-in-Chief of AVE. Her strong and bold character inspired every single Suzeknight to stand up for what was right. She was usually outspoken and preferred to voice her opinions at various forums. She was known for her flair in writing. Known as 'Goddo' in the House, she might have looked scary but had a heart of gold.

Namrata Baruah

Namrata was idolized and respected for her exceptional skills as a sportsperson by everyone in Jinari. Being understanding and calm while working with others was what she was known for. Apart from sports she could also fix a scrumptious meal as well!

Ngukivi Chishi

Ngukivi was the School Captain who was an idol to many of us. He was a charismatic leader and an amazing squash player. His leadership will be missed by the entire school.

Pei Dulom

The cute and talented Pei was amazingly talented when it came to music; it was like she was naturally inclined towards this art. She loved to sing and silently dreamt of unicorns which existed in an alternate universe.

Prarthana Sharma

Prathana was carefree but surprisingly always ended up getting good marks. Her attitude was always positive. Whenever we see hair bands we will remember her for she had a collection of colorful hair bands.

Rishita Dhelia

Rishita was one of the most hard-working people around. She always worked meticulously to make every event a success. She was also a fantastic actress with many one-act play roles under her belt.

Shruti Kothari

Shruti was annoyingly disciplined but it was all for our greater good. She was the indisputable MUN winner. Even as an athlete she was fiercely dedicated!

Shanmen Riddi

Shanmen always surprised the School with his amazing voice and artwork. He was known for his determination. He was often compared to Freddie Mercury or Conor McGregor. He was famous for his story-telling sessions.

Saziia Selvia

Saziia was more than her quiet self. Behind the veil, she was a dedicated debator and a hardcore K-Pop fan. On occasions she could pull off a great look for us with her awesome make-up skills!! She was a peace loving person so, when the world got too loud she ignored it by putting on her headphones.

Takar Liyak

Takar's charm was as dangerous as his skills on the soccer field. He had a friendly nature. He was happy-go-lucky person. Peer or junior, he treated everyone equally with that ever present smile on his face.

Thaina Potoi Ngandam

Thaina's presence would always make us feel good. She had that magical effect on people. Her smiling face, caring and cool personality with a soothing voice will be sorely missed.

Veronica Chowdhury

Veronica was the undisputed queen of Tik-Tok. She was an amazing dancer and singer. She was also a fantastic volley player. Her make-up skills were admirable. Her sassy attitude would always make us laugh.

Pratik Pareek

Pratik's crazy basketball skills always wowed the audience. His contribution to Lohit House was immense. He was a really hard-working person and inspired many Lohitians.

Pratik Bagaria

Pratik was one of the 'coolest guys' of Dhansiri. He would magically disappear during sports time only to be seen with his gang during tea time, sharing stories over a cup of tea and snacks.

Pratam Jain

Pratham was called the 'Joker' or 'PJ'. He was someone who cracked jokes and passed witty comments. He was also a nature lover.

Pranjit N. Goswami

The Academic Captain of the School, Pranjit was a valuable asset to Dhansiri House. He was dedicated towards everything that he set his mind to. He was very calm and inspired many of us.

Rabden Pempahishey

Rabden was the House Prefect and was lovingly called 'Rabi boy'. His commitment towards the betterment of the House was incredible. He proved his worth in a very short span of time at AVS. He handled situations with grace.

Pranjal Saha

Pranjal was a very friendly and sincere person. He was respectful towards everyone. Badminton and singing were his two hobbies.

Rishikesh Dihingia

Rishikesh was 'The Dihingia Express' of AVS; he was the Usain Bolt of our school. He was a very fun-loving person but was also very serious when it came to exams and tried his level best in academics too.

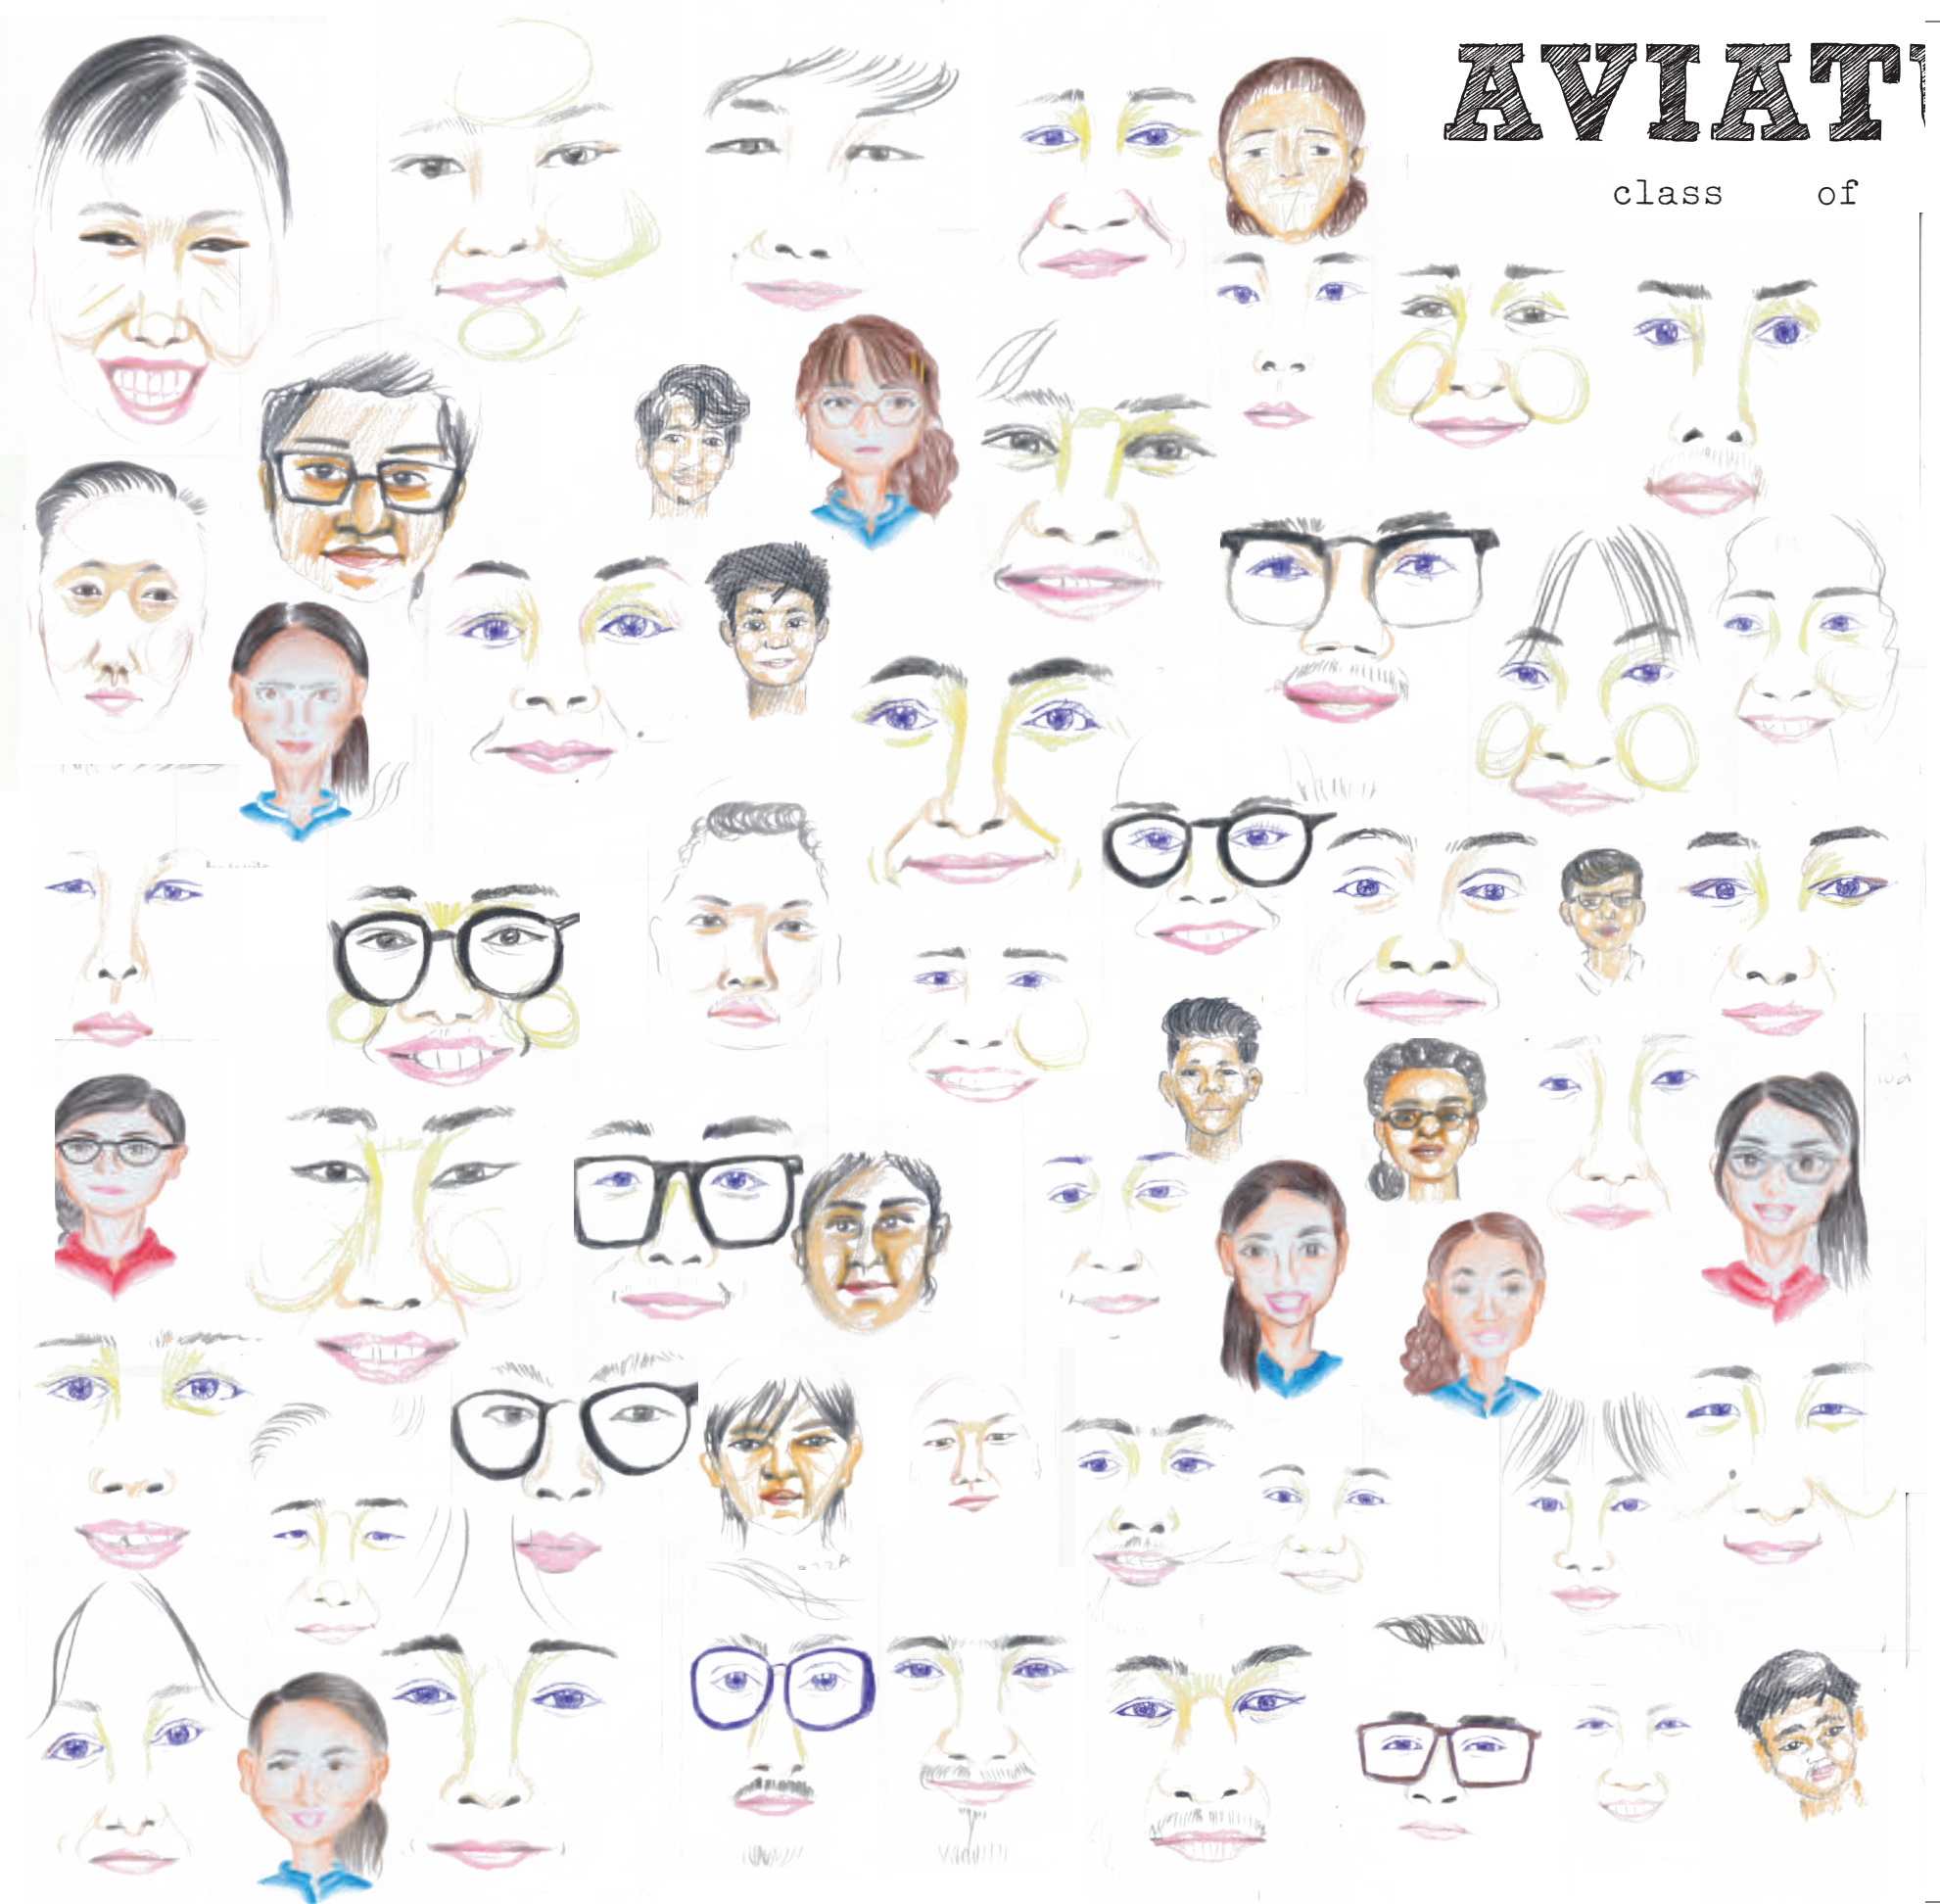

Rohan Prasad Gupta

Rohan was the most renowned Pubg player of Lohit. His lame but funny jokes will always haunt Lohit. We wish him all the best for the future.
