

BATCH OF 2022

LEAVERS' REPORT

176

Aadish Jain

EVENT MANAGEMENT HEAD

Aadish Jain is a humble, peace-loving and conscious individual in the house. He served as the Event Management prefect head in the school and has evolved into becoming a better leader than he used to be. He is known in the house for his academic competence and is also excellent at peer tutoring. I wish him all the best for his future and May God bless him.

-Mr. Samuel Daniel David

Aarav Jain

ACADEMICS CAPTAIN

Promising, poised, mature, elegant, dedicated- these are the first words that come to mind to describe Aarav. He had proved himself as the best Academic Captain of the school ever. He was known as DHA of Manas house. He was one of the most important members of the 'Manas House think tank'. He had contributed a lot to the field of Debating, Quizzing, Munning, and Academics. He had become the source of inspiration to the juniors of the school. I wish he will go from strength to strength in future.

-Dr. R. K. Mishra

Abhigyan Mishra

A gentleman in the way he carries himself, Abhigyan Mishra, has carved out a name for himself in the house and the school. He spoke less and showed himself more in action. He was one of the architects who was solely responsible for the house to bag its 1st Sport Cup. His body blended naturally to any sport he played- football, cricket, racquet games and gym. He is level headed and approaches situations with his head but is also emotional and mindful whenever it pertains to the ones he cares about. I wish that he preserves his ethics and discipline and achieves remarkable heights in his life.

-Mr. Samuel Daniel David

Achimo Sidisow

Chirpy, mischievous and filled with laughter is how I can describe Achimo. An attempt to express herself in a little broken Hindi, getting things done her way and forcing her friends to call her their 'best friend' makes Achimo a delightful company. Not much academically inclined, she has a fascination for football and dance. It is a pleasure seeing her on stage and on the soccer field. What a contrast!

- Dr. Pooja Jain Benjamin Lal

Adarsh Goswami

Adarsh is a boy of having cheery demeanor. He is at the same time very caring also. He is sensitive to the feelings of others but at the same time, he must know how to handle disagreements appropriately. He is passionate about playing Basketball and regularly visiting gym for his physical fitness. He has a diplomatic sense of expressing his views and able to put forward his points nicely in the discussions. Have wonderful and fun filled days ahead.

-Mr. Minto Borah

Aditi Thekedath

SUBANSIRI HOUSE CAPTAIN

Never seen without a bright smile on her face, Aditi captured everyone's heart when she stepped into Tihu. Calm, composed and responsible she would happily carry out every task assigned to her.

- Mrs. Nancy Kwan Baruah

Adrija Das

ACADEMICS CAPTAIN

A shy smile and a warm heart, a very talented artist and a dedicated student with a clear vision for the future who speaks her mind with sensitivity and stands by her values – even if she has to stand alone. My dearest wish for her is for her dream to come true: be it studying at AIIMS or emulating her role model, her Mum.

- Ms. Deepanjali Figg

“ My emotions are unpredictable just like MSB wife. ”

Adrija Mahanta

KOPILI HOUSE CAPTAIN

Tough on the outside and soft on the inside, Adrija has been a storehouse of energy since the very beginning.

- Mrs. Nancy Kwan Baruah

Adrika Borah

IAYP SECRETARY

With a sharp mind and a sharper acumen, Adrika is a drifter until something catches her attention or even better, her interest. Fiercely independent, she is her sisters' pet and is devoted to her family. She grabs sunshine a little at a time to better absorb and savour it. An activist at heart, Adrika believes actions speak louder than words. Surrounded by twinkling ideas, her attitude and style reflect Harry Styles.

- Ms. Sarmistha P. Sarkar

“ Pretty privilege exists, and I'm having a blast.

Akankshit Sharma

He has flair for computers and tech stuff. Akanshit was very helpful to his peers and mentors in arranging zoom meetings for any online events. Be it academics or cultural events, his contribution towards Manas house has been numerous and his absence will be felt truly. He is an ambitious tech guy, I wish him all the luck for his future endeavours.

- Mr. Umesh Singh

Alka Jhawar

KOPILI HOUSE PREFECT

Well, it's been a pleasure knowing Alka!! The best thing that I like about her is the simplicity that is still there in her. Also, I have always found Alka to be well-mannered and responsible. I know she aspires to become a Pilot and so here I convey my best wishes to her for all the endeavours ahead.

- Ms. Raya Mukhopadhyay

Wherever life takes you, walk proud.

“ *High school was an interesting phase
#drama#memories#fun!*

Anam Aviva

Anam, it's time for you to step out of the sheltered cocoon of Assam Valley and take on the world - and the world needs more straightforward, honest and compassionate people like you!

- Mrs. Dayita Datta

“ No I am not angRY!!!

Angree Killingpi

SUBANSIRI HOUSE PREFECT

One of the old times, Angree joined AVS in Class 3. Throughout these years she has always been very quiet yet extremely independent with an aura of calmness around her.

- Mrs. Nancy Kwan Baruah.

Angshuman Sharma

Angshuman, the tall and handsome guy of his batch. Always well dressed for the occasion and most importantly, his hair style which was neatly combed and maintained. “Yes Sir!” is the first response when anything is asked to him in the class and most often gets his answer right in the 2nd attempt in class. His presence in the classroom makes the class alive due to his funny comments. I love his prep work, well presented and neatly written. He will be remembered as a Bindass Sciencee who loved science subjects but never took the pressure of exams.

- Mr. Taufique Alam Ansari

Anushcka Joshi

SPORTS CAPTAIN, TENNIS CAPTAIN,
MODEL UN SECRETARY GENERAL

I would say that Anushcka was the blazing furnace amidst the candles, the perennial river amongst the streams and the mountain amongst the hills. In my 4- year acquaintance with Anushcka, I can just be wonder-struck to witness the phenomenal transformation she has undergone in the said time span. The inspiring truth is that she has pushed herself to create a gem out of herself- she was both the creator and the creation. From being a fumbling MUNer to a bold public speaker, from being an average tennis player to one who is indomitable, from being a passenger on a plane to flying it, from a studious student to an analytical and research-oriented one and the list can go on and on- Anushcka has just showed the extent of potentials one can achieve. She was a competent scientist in her head, a creative artist in her imagination and had the sense to connect them both. I hope that she preserves her adventurous spirit of exploring everything she comes across on the face of the earth and become a well-known person of her time.

- Mr. Samuel Daniel David

“ Manifesting a trip to Kepler-16b on the Millennium Falcon. ”

Anushka Barua

CULTURAL CAPTAIN

Gentle, creative with mother-wit and smarts, this deeply intuitive charmer usually won't turn it on unless she feels you deserve it. Likely to blaze a trail where there is no path! While others strive towards thinking out of the box, Anushka will probably ask, "There was a box?" and therein lies her strength: to re-imagine beauty in the broken. I wish her all the happiness her heart can hold - and a li'l bit more - for good measure!

- Ms. Deepanjali Figg

Apurva Agarwal

Apurva is a courteous, peace-loving boy who is passionate about achieving something great in the IT sector. He is flexible and willing to work on any project that is assigned to him. He is reliable in terms of completing the assigned tasks but with an extended deadline. He is loved by his peers for his amiable and friendly behaviour and is popular for being energetic in post-dinner gossiping. I wish him all the success.

- Mr. Minto Borah

Areeq Imran

HEAD BOY

A great debater, actor, basketball player, guitarist and the list goes on...., having a strong public persona, the head boy of the school is immaculate in all his ways and has excelled in all spheres of his school life. He is very supportive of his peers and juniors which makes him loved by everyone. Having risen from any kind of adversity, his absence will truly be felt.

– Mr. Umesh Singh

Arjun Aryan Chaliha

RIDING CAPTAIN

Arjun was a fabulous Horse Riding Captain of the school. He had a great passion for soccer. He had his principles and ethics. He never hesitated to speak up whenever he felt that something did not agree with his set of values. He was well-liked by his housemates and classmates. He led his house full of zeal in the sporting arena. He was also Sports Captain of Manas House. Manas house had achieved a lot in sports under his leadership. I hope he will become a wonderful Cadet in years to come.

-Dr. R. K. Mishra

I woke up like this.

I can describe life in three words, IT GOES ON.

I make music and Ramen.

Arjyadeep Shankar Mridha

It's breakfast time at the BCDH and this Manas boy comes running towards me to get an update on IPL or ISL scores and analytical feedback on the games that happened last night. It had almost turned into a ritual every morning. Both of us used to follow the erstwhile ATK. Arjyadeep and I have many things in common but football and cricket connect us the best. I do not quite know about his career plans but would like him to consider being a Sports Analyst. All the best!

– Mr. Tushar Bharadwaj

Arya Bandyopadhyaya

Arya, the common room native comes alive with any sign of a party. He is part of the lineage of the 'silent killers'. His love for pop music is uncontested and so is his urge to dance around the house. The man with earphones hanging out of his ears is a significant thread in the fabric of the ISC batch of 2022. His presence will be sincerely missed and we diligently wish him the best for the coming years.

- Dr. R. K. Mishra

Aryan Buragohain

Popular amongst his friends, there is much about Aryan that simmers underneath waiting to be discovered. Sincere and scholarly striving for the best comes naturally to him as does the art of being a true gentleman, I wish him the very best and believe he will do well in anything he endeavours in the future.

- Mrs. Shakila Banu

Ashoka Keithellakpam

A fantastic Dancer who never got a chance to perform on stage . Pity! Ashoka is soft spoken, well mannered and disappears when he goes home. I just hope he keeps in touch! Expect Great things from him in life!

-Mrs. Priyankoo Kashyap Das

Disclaimer: I look tall in pictures.

“I’m a lot nicer than my “walking to class” face. I promise.

Ayan Gogoi

He is smart, talented and humorous, and likes to rap. He has big dreams and one day he can make them come true. He is a funny person to have around the house and his amazing rap skills will be missed. “Well, hip hop is what makes the world go round!” I hope he will be settling himself as a contemporary rapper. I wish him well for a bright future.

“.”

Ayang Borang

DEPUTY EVENT MANAGEMENT HEAD

Ayang is a bundle of sweetness, sensitive, caring and highly dependable, the ever-ready warrior of the Craft Design & Technology Centre. Miss Borang is a go-getter and overcomes all challenges because of her strong willpower and persistence. She gives you many reasons to have much faith in her. She is highly skilled with handcrafting, a very organised, hardworking and efficient girl. A budding designer with exquisite taste and perfect execution—that is our Ayang Borang!

- Mrs. Priyanka Joshi

Baristha Gogoi

He is a happy going man. He is the loudspeaker of Lohit house but childish in nature. He can play with class 5 students. He loves to play computer games with juniors.

-Mrs. Nomita Huidrom

Barnabh Choudhary

Barnabh, a calm and decent boy and has the zeal to achieve something of very high standard in life. He is the type of person we can count on to keep a cool head in a stressful situation, and his positive attitude is contagious. He is compassionate, kind and never misses the opportunity to help others. I wish him all the success.

- Mr. Minto Borah

The fat guy in every movie!

“ See you in 2049 cuties :) ”

Bipasha Haloi

KOPILI HOUSE PREFECT

Bipasha is the girl with the most radiant and infectious smile and will be missed for her most congenial personality as well as her truly inspiring creativity be it in fashion or beauty. A young lady with whom no one can be ruffled, she is one who will be always willing to help and extend herself to the moment. The Prefect of Kopili House, Bipasha will be valued and remembered for her maturity, willingness to listen and accept. Her presence will be like sunshine on a gloomy day or the rainbow after a shower and being a most lovable soul, Bipasha will be remembered for having such a selfless heart. If someone wrote a book on Bipasha, it would be a bestseller!

-Mrs. Tamanna Seth

“ I love Dumbbell-door. ”

Bitoshok Das

He is a delight to have around. He is a motivated student who is eager to learn. He is an example of tenacity. Dedication and a positive attitude courses through his veins. He is an inspiring musician and a true commander known as ‘CAPTAIN WITHOUT A BADGE,’ demonstrating to everyone that a badge does not define who you are. I wish him good fortune.

-Dr. R. K. Mishra

Bornam Bora

ELECTRONIC MEDIA CAPTAIN

Bornam is a very hard-working and sincere person. Always polishing his skills with editing software and camera handling, many regarded him as the powerhouse of the Media Center. He always maintained a friendly relationship with his juniors and was loved by all. He will never be forgotten. An absolute pleasure to work with him for the Electronic media center.

- Mr. Tapash Das

“If it doesn't sound crazy initially, it probably is never going to turn out great finally.”

Chesta Mundra

Chesta has grown into a self-assured, poised and affable young adult. She has enjoyed all facets of school life and is now fully equipped to face the world when she leaves the cosy, comfortable home called The Assam Valley School. Her confidence in herself has made her take challenges in her stride and turn them into her goals that needed to be met and fulfilled.

-Mrs. Vinita Watts

“R-KIVING my 17.”

Chinglung Angh

He will be thought of as a gentle soul who was approachable to Juniors and Peers alike. Known for his easy going demeanor He will be thought of fondly by the community.

-Mr. Siddharth Bathla

Christine Houmai

EVENT MANAGEMENT PREFECT

Christine is a selfless student who puts others' needs before hers. She was an Event Management prefect and this quality of hers was put to good use by serving and helping the school to host many meaningful events. She is a talented person in many fields and one is able to see this in various facets of her school life.

- Mrs. Vinita Watts

C. S. Anshu

Pleasing, respectable, studious, sportive and thoughtful—these are a few of the traits I have observed in Anshu in the brief acquaintance with her. Though she joined the school in her grade 11, she found like-minded friends, activities of her choice and things she would love to do on the campus. She carried herself with her innocent looking smile and respectable manner. In class, she was focussed, attentive and participatory and scored decent scores across examinations. I wish that her cheerfulness is preserved all through her life and wish her the best for a blessed future.

– Mr. Samuel Daniel David

Danica Boro

I wish I had got to know Danica earlier. She is a girl of few words, and I suspect many hidden facets which I'm sure will reveal themselves in years to come!

- Mrs. Dayita Datta

“The CS in my name stands for ‘can’t socialise’.

“Thats it.

Dechen Sangay

Dechen joined the school in grade 11 but still established herself as a reliable and a responsible person in the school community. She is a lively and an amiable person who utilised the time in hand carefully and grabbed the opportunities that came her way in the field of publication and art. It has been a pleasant experience to work with her for the English Literary Journal. She was a clear-headed leader who led her team in a unique and skilful manner. Her sense of creativity and designing, pace of meeting timelines, distribution of the work amongst the teammates and the manner of responding to the critical comments by the teachers- all these projected her prudence, wisdom and intelligence. Her persona is a fine blend of seriousness, dedication, fun and amusement. I wish that she preserves her quality of reliability and resilience and achieve greatness in life.

– Mr. Samuel Daniel David

Inhale Love, exhale Hate.

Devangana Bharadwaj

I would have definitely missed pinpointing who laughed the hardest in class if it wasn't for Devangana's beaming face. Her zestful, expressive and confident nature is epitomized through her dance. She dances exceedingly well. Her beatific smile is the most visible when she is with her housemates with whom she shares a great rapport. Your effort is sure to win. Keep up the spirit.

- Ms. Ishita Malhotra

Devrani Pebam

Devrani took very little time to settle down in AVS. Cheerful and cooperative, and with a smile, she never let being a student of science get in the way of enjoying life! She has great ambitions and is sure she will achieve them! I am looking forward to reading about” Captain Devrani Pebam...” one day
- Mrs. Dayita Datta

Dikshita Bhuyan

Dikshita was a soft spoken, calm and pleasant girl with a smile on her face. Though very shy to respond in physics class but does her work on time. She loved being the back bencher but never disturbed the class. I can say confidently the most decent and disciplined back bencher. She loves biotech subjects and I am sure she will pursue her career in it. She will be remembered for carrying herself with grace and elegance.

- Mr. Taufique A. Ansari

Call me dum dum.

2 broke girls and I'm one of them.

“When people see good, they expect good, and I don't want to live up to anyone's expectations.”

Dimpal Deori

JINARI HOUSE PREFECT

Dimpal was a very warm and kind hearted girl. She was a good Sattriya dancer. She always had a good bonding with her friends and was always liked by her juniors.

- Mrs. Nancy Kwan Baruah

“Don't run after success, run after excellence. Success will come running after you.”

Doyin Padung

He is a happy boy and charming too. He has a pleasant personality and makes friends easily. He is not worrying about his life. He is always eager to do easy tasks and does not want to do the difficult one. He has been improving self-control and soft skills.

-Mr. A. S. Huidrom

Dristi Rathi

BHOROLI HOUSE PREFECT, ATHLETICS
CAPTAIN

Popular amongst her mates, Dristi's quiet nature is a front to her boisterous self which is like a burst of sunshine. Her keen eye behind the camera has taken frames that are perfect memories. Her quick laugh is infectious and her keen mind will take her places and beyond. May success be with you, always!

- Ms. Kamalica Bhowmick

Eloziini Senachena

Elo', is like a glow-worm in the dark. Quiet, and forever thoughtful her mind is a potpourri of stories that finds expression as much in words as it does through Manga. Like stories that leave behind a thought long after they are over, Elo is transformational. Her wit can go from entertaining to becoming a samurai sword. An artist at the core, she is brilliant, bad and a little mad.

- Ms. Sarmishtha Paul Sarkar

Oh, I forgot!

Millions of years ago a fish walked on land for the first time, it should've stayed in the water.

Gagan Malik

Gagan has a pleasant personality and with his amicable nature, he manages to win a supportive set of good friends. He is capable of producing work of high standard and is a respectful individual in his batch. People look at him as a guide and motivator. He has always been found with his books and in a true sense an academician whom people look at too. He is generous by heart and a man of few words but carries his personality very well. I wish him success in his future endeavours.

- Mrs. Shakila Banu

Smile and continue.

Garlina Saikia

Garlina is a low key girl but with a quiet sense of humour and a small group of good friends. She enjoyed life at AVS and I hope she will make use of her talents in art and photography. I'm sure she will go from strength to strength.

- Mrs. Dayita Datta

Gazal Panesar

It is nice to see Gazal evolve with time into a confident girl. Memories of her will always stay with me, she, walking around with a diary in her hand, waiting for the phone-call day.

- Mrs. Nancy Kwan Baruah

Gora Gungte

MANAS HOUSE PREFECT

Gora had shown remarkable maturity in terms of leadership. He had led his house as a House Prefect with sincerity and maturity. He was a passionate soccer player and became the inspiration for his juniors. He had instilled discipline among his housemates during his tenure of service. He had shown remarkable improvement in his approach to conflict management. I wish him to grow strength to strength in his future endeavours.

- Dr. R. K. Mishra

One piece is real!!

“ Feed yourself with good thoughts. ”

Hapcha Pongte

An extremely lively and active girl who walks around the campus with a bright smile illuminating her face. Those who are her friends will surely testify about her compassionate and caring nature. In class, she is a calm student yet attentive and becomes active whenever she needs to do some academic work on her tab. She is also a graceful dancer, a keen listener and an amiable person.

-Mr. Samuel Daniel David

“ Mentally somewhere else. ”

Hiramoni Basumatary

Hiramoni is her best when she is on the sports field. She's shy yet at the same time friendly, diligent, responsible, dependable and a helpful soul. She works well in a team and on her own too. A multi-talented young lady who is creative expression is not limited to canvas alone. She can turn a simple piece of cloth into a beautiful and trendy outfit. I wish her the very best and she needs to know that the world is her oyster.

- Ms. Pamela Syiemlieh

Ibom Angu

Ibom angu “I would like to call him “back bencher or silent killer of my class “. Honestly speaking in class you never were sincere in teaching nor did you bother to write in a notebook instead pretending to write but reading the mongu. But one thing was there which you never needed to be pushed on was your passion towards playing soccer every single day you reached on field with full enthusiasm and dedication. With this moving on to a new sphere of career and dreams can be a challenging process but you will surely turn out well. I wish you the best of luck in all of your future endeavours.

-Dr. Sarika Brahma

Imnasong Longkumer

EVENT MANAGEMENT PREFECT

Imna is what I call him, a soft-spoken, amiable, compassionate, well- mannered boy with a sweet smile who always tries to hide away. Yet focused, courteous and diligent, Imna is sensible and I wish him the very best for his future.

-Mrs. Hemashree Deka

Why does everyone ask me to sing a song?

Do you for you.

Joya Abedin

Joya joined the school in class 11 but she made a few friends quickly as she is a cheerful person and carries positivity around her. She is a very good dancer and one can see the happiness radiating when she dances. Her smile brings a lot of positivity to the class. I wish her happiness and success in future.

-Dr. Sarika Brahma Hazarika

What kind of a woman does not have an axe?

Jiya Agarwal

JINARI HOUSE PREFECT, SQUASH
CAPTAIN

Jiya was a soft spoken, reliable, wise and amicable girl. She was organised and an independent learner. Her helping nature was always admired by her friend. She was very creative with her art and craft work which led to Jiya becoming one of the youngest entrepreneurs in this field. She was successful in balancing her life as a prefect of Jinari house, dedicated 'sciencee' and a blooming entrepreneur. She will be remembered as a dedicated, punctual and disciplined student.

- Mr. Taufique A. Ansari

Junaid Hussain

Junaid has a good sense of the stock market, share market and mutual fund. His confidence level in driving a vehicle has gone up one-step ahead of his friends in the house. He left all the co-ed issues and became a complete “Brahma Chari” at the end.

- Mr. A.S. Huidrom

Jyoti Deep Deka

A talented singer who is recognized for his ‘brown munde’. A sportsman who symbolizes perseverance and inculcates in us the three golden words: NEVER GIVE UP. He is recognized by every junior as a dedicated and studious ‘sciencee’. He has a very keen mind and takes part in everything. He is a very approachable senior whenever needed. The walls of the Manas House common room will miss him. After six years at AVS, he has finally found his true partner, the ‘Laptop’

- Dr. R. K. Mishra

If less is more, nothing is everything.

To live is to be musical, starting with the blood dancing in your veins. Everything living has a rhythm. Do you feel your music?” -Michael Jackson

Jyotishmoyee Charingia

She possesses a natural talent for music and is also academically accomplished. She has an innate gift of her mellifluous voice, with which she can melt stones and lit up candles. She has won over many hearts with her respectful demeanour and captivating singing. She has a tremendous voice and a great practical knowledge about vocals, and I must say that she has a bright future in music being one of the best vocalists of The Assam Valley School.

-Mr. Arvind Benjamin

Karma Kalden

NAMDANG HOUSE CAPTAIN

The years have certainly flown by! I remember Karma from my early Tihu days. He stood out among all the naughty ones – he was the calm, obedient one. Simply adorable and polite to the boot, he was always surprisingly forthright and honest. In the intervening years though we rarely meet the Tihu bond is as strong as always, I shall definitely miss his presence. Wish him all the very best, he will always have a special place in my heart.

- Mrs. Mousumi Talukdar

Karun Thapa

He is artistic in nature and known for his creativity. He confessed that he gets up in the morning with one shout of his ma'am Nomita in the boarding House. He wanted to be a "Brahma Chari" but it never happened to him due to one or the other reason.

- Mrs. Nomita Huidrom

Kashish Mehta

Kashish it's ironic, but most of my early contact with you was through zoom - and when I met you in person I was reminded of the old saying "good things come in small packages". Now it's time for you to discover the world and the world to discover you!

- Mrs. Dayita Datta

“ We are all mature till someone pulls out a piece of bubble wrap.
