CRITERIA TO CHOOSE A CAREERS

Choosing a career starts from finalizing the subject you want to study to shortlisting the colleges you want to go to.

Some pointers to keep in mind while choosing your career are:

- Future prospects: - Future prospects, both in terms of our interest in the field as well as the survival of the field itself in the next upcoming 5 to 10 years should be taken into consideration.
- Satisfaction: - It is an important factor while choosing a career. A good salary, a suitable work environment, and a good location might give some people the job satisfaction they need, but there are people who might have fewer objections or little to no concerns regarding these. The only thing that matters to them is the job itself. Usually, a job that is socially helpful is the one that provides true satisfaction.
- Stability: - Financial stability and job stability is something that should be considered as important criteria. As the world is drastically changing and higher technologies have taken over manual work in the industries; so, before choosing a particular career path, stability, as well as the salary factor should be taken into account.
