

Garv Kedia

Garv has had a long innings in the school and I had the privilege of seeing him grow into such a fine, young gentleman. He is a humble, jovial and fun-loving boy. The Tennis Captain of the school, he also enjoys playing cricket. I wish him a bright future ahead.

Gungming Phassang

In every school, some students inspire and motivate their peers through actions and words. Gungming has led mostly by example. He was found to be confident, approachable, and empathetic and he used his leadership to make a positive difference. The School will remember him for his fair behaviour and integrity.

Hana Shanifer Ahmed

The role of a school leader is multifaceted. Hana has portrayed all the virtues required to be a student leader. Hana's influence has extended beyond the classroom and motivated several students to aspire for leadership roles at AVS. She has been an effective communicator and has profoundly impacted the community.

Hemanshi Malik

Beneath her quiet, shy exterior lies a compassionate and adaptable young lady, always ready to help. She's diligent, courteous, and academically focused, with a beautiful smile. Despite a leg injury during athletics, she's a strong leader, setting an example in her House and guiding the badminton team. Best wishes for her future.

Himanish Jallan

Himanish evidently possessed a unique aptitude for organizing events and a keen eye for detail. He has been an exemplary leader, bringing people together and creating memorable moments at school through various events. We will never forget him for his disarming smile and a balanced head on young shoulders.

Hiya Keshan

The words that come to mind to describe Hiya are intelligent and friendly. She is inclined towards debating and Hindi drama. Her ability to take responsibility will help her in future. I admire her ability to perform well in academics. Very vocal and firm when she participates in debating events.

Imnalemla Imchen

A wizard of colours she may as well be in Oz given that she drifts constantly between the world in her head and outside it. Happiest when she is painting, Imna is a serene soul. It will be quite a frame she chooses to make of her journey beyond these gates.

Jasraj Thokchom

Jasraj is a remarkable learner who approaches each subject with a thirst for knowledge. He actively participates in group activities and his ability to listen, and offer constructive feedback enriches the learning experience for everyone involved. I have no doubt that he will continue to excel in his future endeavours.

Jayvardhan Patwari

Badminton, quiet, and smart are the first words that come to mind to describe Jayvardhan. I have seen him mature from a confused young boy to a confident teenager. He possesses good leadership qualities and has brought laurels in the field of badminton. I admire his consistent performance in academics.

Jessica Rani

When thinking of Jessica, the words that come to mind are dependable, honest and cooperative. From a shy young girl, she blossomed into a confident woman who aspired to lead the House, and she did it with her heart and soul. She is undoubtedly one of the best Captains I have had!

Jupitora Das

I have known Jupitora since she was in Class 9. The child I once thought to be mildly annoying turned out to be a wonderful human being in the years that followed. An excellent dancer, Jupitora also had the skill and mindfulness required to be a good leader.

Kaezax Kholie

Immaculately polite, generous to a fault and quick with a smile as with his wit, Kaezax is everybody's 'go-to' person for everything IT. With the bearing of a monk, he constantly plans for all eventualities. He carries a simmering ambition he is waiting to pursue. Kaezax is ready to own the world.

Kalzang Ongchuk Bhutia

Kalzang, who will be leaving behind a trail of fond memories, possesses an extraordinary personality that radiates joy. He approaches each day with an eagerness to learn and explore. As he embarks on his journey, we feel a mix of pride and nostalgia. We wish him all the success in the world.

Karan Ngatey Gam

I have known Karan for several years now and have always found him to be an upstanding gentleman. He is kind, considerate and aware of how he affects others around him. Outstanding at equestrian pursuits, Karan is also a very approachable leader.

Karma Camdir Teli

Karma is the funniest student whom I have ever taught physics or at least tried. During prep time he takes rounds to ensure that his friends are doing the prep so that he can correct them later in his notebook. I hope that Karma returns in my life one day.

Karmin Bam

Whatever it may be, Karmin has a non-working solution to every problem. His dream is to become richer than the richest person on earth. He also has a serious collection of watches which never showed the real time. He will be missed immensely as he sparkles the environment with his philosophies.

Kashvi Agarwal

Kashvi, a Kopili girl and science student, is known for her interest in arts and academics. She has contributed to art in all ways. An aspiring architecture student, her determination to always do well academically, will make her an outstanding architect. I wish her the very best for her future endeavours.

Kashvi Kejriwal

Kashvi has a sunny disposition, stays focused on her goals and rarely will you find her looking dejected and beaten. She enjoys what she does and is careful not to put too much on her plate lest she finds herself caught between a rock and a hard place. I am sure she will continue to live a full and exciting life.

Kavish Agarwal

The impish grin of a tiny boy made an imprint on my mind when I had first met Kavish. He used to make our classes very interesting with all his questions and sharp intelligent answers. I wish him the very best as he steps into the real arena of life.

Kemo Dulom

Kemo is a gentle soul and a very quiet child. As his tutor, it was bliss to hear even a simple yes or no from Kemo. His music and his NEET dream will work out. With best wishes.

Khachun Zenzee Kailai Ngandam

Khachun excels in football and has a newfound passion for Indian musical instruments. He's a talented athlete and musician with a vibrant personality, known for his humor and sarcasm. Khachun's unwavering self-belief drives his skill acquisition and practice, making him truly exceptional.

Krish Mahajan

Both then and now, Krish has undergone a radical metamorphosis. He transitioned from being an introverted child to becoming an extrovert. In the house, he speaks well. His involvement with electronic media and his contributions there are admirable. His self-assurance has increased significantly. When making irrelevant arguments or assertions, he speaks effectively.

Krishiv Kalita

Krishiv carries the distinguished quality of a deep understanding of the needs and preferences of events and audiences. He is a reasonably good communicator and respects team members' contributions and steadfast commitment to excellence. He will be remembered for his quiet demeanour.

Krisht Kashyap

A quiet but friendly young man, Krisht's attendance in class was like a drop of water in the ocean. His frequent absence in class, on the flip side, was compensated by the activities he involved himself in outside the classroom. I wish him the best for all his future endeavours.

Krishti Pathak

Krishti is a calm, respectful and extremely responsible person. I got the opportunity to know her a little closely when I taught her sociology in Class 11. She is sociable and knows how to lead while cooperating with her team. I wish her success and happiness for the future.

Lairingdi Thaoson

This multifaceted Kopili girl and science is known for her interest in art and reading. An aspiring student who wants to pursue architecture, her punctuality in completing all her tasks on time is commendable. Her level-headed nature will be missed. I wish her luck for her future endeavours.

Langlensana Rajkumari

Langlensana is a prominent Manipuri dancer. When she joined my dance class she told me that she knows Manipuri dance and I remember being delighted. She got first position in the international dance competition in Dubai. She will achieve great heights in the world of dance. I wish her nothing but the best.

Lomika Benjamin

The world is her canvas. It is fascinating to visualize the world from the imagination of an artist where creativity unfolds with each stroke of the brush. Lomika's world of art will grab your attention. Hope you continue to paint magic Lomika!

Mahika Borooah

Friendly, talkative and helpful; beneath her carefree attitude lies a young lady who is serious, soft and sensitive towards her passion for achieving great heights in life. Focus and consistency are the keys to achieve what you crave for. Wishing you the best for future endeavours.

Manasvi Agarwal

Full of beans, a feisty young lady, ever-courteous-Manasvi will always be remembered for her 'never - say - die' spirit. Wish you all the luck, Manasvi. I am sure that whatever she does in life, she will throw her heart and soul into it.

Mayushka Patodia

Having been Mayushka's tutor when she was in the Class 11, I have known her to be an amicable, polite and well-mannered student. She is a problem solver, able to smartly handle any responsibility entrusted upon her. I am very proud of her. I wish he the very best.

Mudit Kishan Jain

Mudit is a very funny boy. When he wishes me, his eyes also smile along. I met him regularly in Lower School during Indian vocal classes. He kept asking me to take him to the Pune Fest. Mudit may not be a very good singer but he is a good human being.

Nabadeep Deka

Naba is a thorough gentleman. A hard-working and responsible boy, he has learned a lot from the school. He was involved in a wide range of activities during his stay at AVS. He takes an interest in working out a series of exercises to develop and promote mental health and fitness.

Neel Madhav Garodia

A hallmark of his personality was his sense of responsibility for any job that is assigned to him. He shall be remembered for his wit, humour, and good nature. I am sure that whatever he does in life, he will throw his heart and soul into it.

Ojasvi Agarwal

A debater, writer, singer, dancer, and a house prefect, Ojasvi, balances all of her roles flawlessly and remains tied to her roots. Her journey towards leadership was not easy. I am proud that this zealous young woman faced every challenge with grace and emerged successful. I wish her the best.

Pragya Narjinary

Pragya comes across as brash and gullible and yes, that is her. However, there is another side and this one is caring and sensitive, giving and forgiving. In fact, she is a little too emotional for her own good. It amuses me the way she loves her paints and powders.

Pratik Kanoi

Pratik Kanoi, an adorable Prefect of Lohit House, is a highly motivated individual who loves new challenges. He followed directions accordingly in true spirit. He is very fond of sleeping and eating. During his school life, he was involved in many activities. I wish him all the best in his future endeavours.

Pratiksha Choudhury

Pratiksha is the most hardworking and reliable group leader I have come across. This CDT Captain is a hard taskmaster who reminds the students and the teachers to do their work on time. With her creative spirit she is an asset and a pillar of strength. Wish you the best, dear Pratiksha!

Pritam Tribedi

Pritam is a good person by nature and loves to do new adventures without thinking too much about it. He enjoyed being part of his high school community and was involved in a wide range of activities. He has learned many things from school.

Prithviraj Paul

Prithvi is a shy, well-mannered boy. He is also a confident leader who has followed his passion to become the AVS Cricket Captain. He has grown up to be such a fine, young gentleman and will be leaving the AVS nest shortly. My blessings will always be there for him.

Priyanu Priyanka Kashyap

Exceptional in every endeavour she takes up; Priyanu has little understanding of space and time. She exists in a continuum which makes it difficult for her to traverse in three dimensions but the world will not wait no matter how brilliant she is. A strong example of a truly excellent young woman, she has my heart.

Rangdou Jeremiah Houmai

Rangdou is a unique character - observes more, speaks less, and is very independent. A dependable team player, he gives his best efforts in supporting the people who rely on him. Rangdou is into all team sports and he is fairly good at all of them. I wish him a bright future ahead.

Richa Basaiawmoit

Richa, a Kopili girl and science student is known by her peers for her etiquette and cleanliness. She is very outspoken and her attitude towards work is very commendable. I wish her good luck for her future endeavours and may she excel in whatever field she decides to pursue.

Ritudeep Deka

Ritudeep was a fantastic House Captain who brought laurels to the House under his leadership. He is calm and optimistic in nature. His immense love for music is exhibited during shower times. He is a football enthusiast who enjoys watching FIFA matches. I wish him all the best for his future life.

Ruhana Mazumdar

Ruhana's soft-spoken nature may sometimes make her go unnoticed, but her thoughts and ideas are always profound. A girl who shows unwavering support for her friends, what sets Ruhana apart is her resolute optimism which is like a beacon of hope that shines through even in the most challenging of circumstances.

Ryan Dorjee Chingapa

I have known Ryan since he was a chubby checked Class 7 boy. A bundle of mischief who grew up to be the Captain of Dhansiri while managing to carry his impishness intact. Despite the penchant for coming up with the weirdest jokes in the soberest moments, Ryan has always made the right choices

Samarth Mahatta

Leader, bundle of high octane energy, Samarth is one who will be at the forefront. His Social Service exposure will definitely help him grow and have a mature mindset. I wish him the very best for his future.

Sanchi Lalani

Sanchi embodies diligence, integrity, and hard work. In her 2-year tenure at AVS, she has established herself successfully in everything especially in the field of music and MUN. She has maintained a strong academic performance and has responsibly contributed to her House's growth during her final year in this school.
