

Sayashri Basumatary

Armed with a devil-may-care attitude, you just have to scratch the surface and you will find a vulnerable girl who really does care. I hope that you find a golden pearl in your oyster. You shall be missed.

Shavya Lamsal Shreshtha

A school community has individuals who are recognized for their accomplishments but a few go unrecognized although they carry a golden heart. Shavya is able to empathize and have the will to help others. He exemplifies the value of kindness and is a pillar of strength to those around him.

Shreeya Elangbam

Shreeya, a talented young choir conductor, possesses a captivating blend of charm and assertiveness. Her no-nonsense attitude is coupled with a quiet self-assurance. With her sharp mind and tenacity, she's destined for success in the world of business. I love the way she could terrify the Dhansiri boys whenever they came over for practice.

Shreya Rameka

Shreya takes life as it comes and does not make too much of a fuss about anything. She speaks her mind when she wants and then gets on with life. I have seen her grow in confidence and I am sure she will have a wonderful life with lots of fun and excitement.

Srishiti Bajaj

Srishiti Bajaj became synonymous with the colour 'Blue' and she blew us away! She ensured that she was in the midst of all things at school. Like a whirlwind with an inexhaustible energy, she churned, acted, debated, led and inspired. She decided that the skies would not be the limit, and they weren't.

Siddhi Gupta

An incredible athlete once upon a time. She was the House Captain in Tihu but she was always pulled up by me for being the last one to come out of her room. She accepted everything in a positive manner. I wish her all the very best for her future endeavours.

Sidhi Agarwal

I have seen Sidhi grow both in terms of academic performance and personal life. I feel nothing but proud to see where she has reached. She has the capability to knock life's challenges down and emerge victorious. May your dreams come true and may you make our hearts swell with pride.

Soumya Agarwal

Soumya, with her graceful nature and friendly disposition, has managed to win many hearts. Though normally polite and soft spoken, she can be quite persistent and determined once she sets her mind on something. She is sincere to her responsibilities and has proved her worth as an event management prefect.

Ssara Jha

A maverick with a pencil, Ssara lives in a multiverse. She has built herself a veneer of the 'lost look' which acts as a sun-block for stray conversations. Happiest when sketching, she is a constant for all who slave in the room above the library. Ssara is waiting to happen to the world.

Stella Irom

Stella has inspired many of her friends to try their hand at being an Assamese and Hindi teacher. She is academically oriented and extremely serious about her career. Her unworldly innocence made her the brunt of innumerable jokes at the dinner table. She can also give any standup comedian a run for their money.

Sujanveer Aatria

Sujanveer is an organized House Captain whose bond with his peers and juniors is well fortified. He has done extensive research in the field of chess and his dedication to his work is exemplary. He has carried out his responsibilities as both the swimming and chess captain in a laudable manner.

Sungtiben Jamir

Sungtiben is a very friendly and caring person. She is affectionate and is always ready to help whenever she can. She knows her boundaries and is capable of enjoying a fantastic balance in life; she has her fun but knows where to draw the line. It is always a pleasure to see her going about her work with verve and alacrity.

Sungjemya Jamir

It is difficult to believe that Sungjem joined AVS only last year as she fit in almost seamlessly with everyone else. She comes across as forthright and at times, blunt. On the other hand, she is also very compassionate and understanding, a side she prefers to camouflage. I shall certainly miss her.

Takhe Tamo Haaro

Haaro is a good debater and the vocal prefect of the House. He lives in the present and enjoys every moment of it. He is an adventurous boy and likes to try out anything and everything. He is highly motivated and ready to try out new challenges in his life.

Tanishka Sharma

The personification of strength and commitment, Tanishka or Tashi as she is affectionately called, served as a House Prefect of Subansiri. She successfully enforced the rules of the school amongst her housemates. Nothing can possibly go wrong when Tanishka is around and that defines who Tashi is. I wish her a bright future ahead.

Thejose Epao

A quiet but self-directed boy who knows no limit when it comes to his work. Work is his passion and he ensures that the task assigned to him is accomplished. I am excited to see more creative contributions that Thejose promises to deliver in future. He will always shine with his gentleness.

Thsachili Sangtam

Thsachili is a remarkable and respectful young man whom I will always hold in high regard. His proactive nature consistently ensured that tasks were completed promptly and to a high standard. I wish him the best in all his endeavours. I am confident that he will wholeheartedly commit himself to the path he chooses in life.

Trisha Singh Sisodia

I was Trisha's tutor when she was in the Class 11. I have known her to be a friendly but shy person. She is usually quiet but once she opens up, she can be a wonderful person. She is smart, witty, and polite. I am very proud of her.

Vanshika Sharma

The absolute reigning drama queen! I've been a part of her audience for years. Never a dull moment with Vanshika around! The corridors shall miss the echo of my 'Vannshikkkaa' followed by a reassuring 'Ma'am, don't worry, everything is okay.' I pray that you find your niche soon. I will miss you.

Varun Barua

A young and dynamic filmmaker whose cinematic aptitude has left a wholesome mark on our community. He has captivated us on many occasions through his creative and artistic expression. In his journey at AVS, he has also inspired many fellow students to explore their creative passions. Wishing him the very best.

Vedaraj Heikrujam

He is a humble and self-disciplined child who respects his teachers. He has a unique characteristic of watching someone through classroom windows and doors. He will be remembered as a science who took all the notes in the class but somehow always forgot to study them for the exams.

Veeraj Goswami

Veeraj is always there to lend a helping hand. He is fun-loving yet dedicated towards his goals. A talented musician with innumerable achievements, he has an eye for minute details. As the Cultural Captain, he strengthened the cultural domain of the school. An enthusiastic student like him holds many promises for the future.

Vidhi Choudhury

When thinking of Vidhi a sweet, polite girl comes to mind. We interacted a lot in the field of dramatics. She is a leader to the core; loving, understanding and respectful – a person more mature than her years. My best wishes for this lady who will surely make a mark in her life.

Yasasri Tibrewal

Known for her loyalty and integrity, Yasasri is a soft-spoken, talented young lady on whose shoulders, responsibility rests very well. She goes about her business with diligence and is a pleasure to be around. She has displayed determination and perseverance in whatever she does. Wishing you the very best.

Yukta Saikia

Yukta does not say much but she knows what she wants and how to get it. I feel she is confident yet not too pushy. She loves a good time but knows when to call it quits and thus enjoys a good balance. I know she holds the reins of her life firmly for an exciting ride.
