

Graduation Ceremony

The Graduation Ceremony of the class of 2022 was organised on the 25th of February, 2022. The ceremony began with the arrival of the Chief Guest, Air Commodore Dharmendra Singh Dangji, VSM, Air Officer Commanding, Tezpur Air Force Base. The event then moved on with a few students of the graduating class reminiscing about their journey at AVS followed by the presentation of mementos to the students. The Chief Guest's inspiring speech followed thereafter. A short while later the group photo of the graduating class was taken and then everyone moved to the dance and dinner venues where they enjoyed the rest of the evening.

LEAVERS

Aaryan Singh

Aaryan is a person with a jovial attitude, always far from discord and his companionship is loved by all. His positive attitude, high level of dedication towards any assignment and willingness to learn made him an ideal student. I wish him good health and success in all that he does to build up his career.

Aastha Jatin Bora

Confident, positive, garrulous and a great role model for her peers and juniors is what defines Aastha. The school has been a great learning experience for her and has given her ample opportunities to develop her abilities. With an innocent smile and mischief in eyes, Aastha is adept at making people around her smile. She exhibits diligence and sincerity in her work and that makes her stand out among the others.

Aayush Aagrwal

Aayush prioritises his work and is an excellent student and I always valued him for his integrity. He is driven and has his goals clear in his mind. His action plans are laid out one by one. He has an excellent disciplinary record in school and always tries to raise the bar through his academic performance.

Abhitej Singh Gill

Abhitej is an obedient student while also having a will of his own. He has learnt many things and has applied it as and when required. He is a sincere and a dedicated pupil due to which he was appointed as House Prefect of Lohit. He remained the same throughout his stay in the school. I am sure he will do well in his life.

Adella Florette Massar

Affectionate and enthusiastic is what comes to mind thinking of Adella. Adella is a fine blend of childlike innocence, sincerity and determination. She is a student who responds to close interaction with teachers. Her politeness has made her an approachable student leader as the Round Square Student Chairperson and her ability to explore her talents have made her an accomplished student in her school life.

Adiella Kharkongor

Adiella is one of the sweetest and kindest students that I have had the good fortune of teaching. Although she comes across as a quiet child, she has one of the loudest minds! She is very perceptive and is a true science student. She has the aura of quiet determination and I am sure that she is going to do great things in life.

Aditya Kumar Upadhyaya

I know Aditya from class 8 as I used to be his housemaster. Since then, we shared movements like father and son. He is well rooted in terms of mannerism. Not only is he a good actor but also a wonderful singer. He is also into public speaking and participated in Hindi debates many times, which he does very well. I want him to always stay as humble and kind as he always was. Nothing but hoping the best for his future endeavours.

Aditya Pradhan

Aditya and Om Kumar Gupta were established partners in crime. He is a cheerful boy with a compassionate heart. He always posed convoluted academic challenges to me. He tried to keep away from controversial issues. I wish him well for the future.

Ahamed Daiyan Alam

A boy with razor sharp rebuttals, an overachiever throughout his school tenure. Daiyan is blessed with immense intelligence. I am of course also amazed at his capacity to sleep at odd hours in weird positions! I guess all that is his way of keeping energy reserved so that he can score slam dunks on the basketball court.

Akum Raskam Marak

A quiet but self-directed and dedicated boy who knows no limit when it comes to his work is my definition of Akum. He is a strong team leader who commands respect from his peers in his arena of expertise, be it art or movie making. The way he works echoes the line "Actions speak louder than words". A soft-spoken and hard-working boy, he is a very determined person. All the best!

Alda Nongmeikapam

Alda, the Head Girl who could be heard in the sounds of silence, such was her personality, charm, and leadership bearing. She upheld the pillars of the school with the core values of integrity, respect, resilience and pursuit of excellence all through her school years with unwavering allegiance. She could almost will the ball to move alongside as she powered at the basketball court, to dance Kathak most gracefully. We wish she continues to blaze a trail, as a woman of substance that she is.

Angelica Saikia

Angelica is an intelligent, friendly, sensitive, sociable person. She loves dance, music and anchoring events. Her sense of responsibility and her attitude towards work will stand her in good stead in the future. I admire her ability to perform well in academics. She has a very stylish dressing sense.

Angie Nongthombam

Angie is among one of the most dedicated, professional and staunch in terms of duties and a hard-working student I ever got. Her journey from a diffident teen in class 7 in the choir to becoming the AVS Western Choir Captain has not been easy. Later, she worked hard on herself not only as a self-motivated girl but also became a terrific vocalist. It was her sheer professionalism, confidence and determination that got her so far. I wish her all the best as she continues to climb the ladder of success.

Anguvika Zhimo

A transparent person with a kind heart is what makes Anguvika's nature sui generis. I shall reminisce about his epic reactions in class; each time I happened to ask him anything he dodges with his beaming smile. If the classes ended up being humorous, credit for the same will always go to Anguvika. Honest to the core, Anguvika will face any test to safeguard this quality of his. Remember, the effect of one good hearted person is incalculable and you are one of them.

Ankita Sarkar

When I began teaching her, Ankita gave little idea of her hidden depths. Since then my description of her is "silent missile". When asked a question - she is bang on target. Those who underestimate her in the future are sure to get a similar surprise. She is truly a budding intellectual.

Anuradha Basumatary

Anu as she is fondly called, is a dallop of sunshine with a warm smile and a kind word for everyone around her. While she can go from quiet to mischievous at the drop of a hat, it is her sense of nurture that draws people to her. With a quiet smile, Anu has a beautiful voice and can be found humming especially during History classes. Extremely resourceful Anu is the go-to person whether during last moment hassles or late-night treats. A woman of few words, it is her actions that endears her to all.

Anushka Adhikari

The words that come to mind to describe Anushka are art, reading and basketball. She is very jovial, fun loving and affectionate. She gets along with everyone and believes in co-existing peacefully with friends without much difference. She loves to read books. I admire her ability to perform consistently in academics and no less when it comes to sports and culture.

Anya Tayeng

Anya is one of the most dependable persons I have come across in this school. She is soft-spoken and hardworking. Her quiet and easygoing nature makes her a favourite among her peers and juniors. A sportswoman at heart, Anya's passion for sport, especially Volleyball, ensured that one would see her on the field quite often. The Suzeknights will remember Anya for her participation in various sporting events and for helping the House win many of those events. I wish her success in all her future endeavours.

Archit Ruthia

I have known Archit for the last four years. He uses his instincts to deal with matters independently and in a positive way and does not give up when facing a task that is difficult and always gives it his best. He works at a laid back pace. I really liked his company and wish him all the best for his future.

Arman A Imdad

Equestrian par excellence, Arman's assiduity evokes what Winston Churchill once said - 'No hour of life is wasted that is spent in the saddle.' He does not hesitate to speak his mind and is ever ready to face challenges. If asked what I shall miss the most about Arman, it would definitely be the constant searches and assigning dedicated manpower to catch hold of him and put a full stop to his merry-go-rounds in and around the main school building. Arman, let your dreams be your wings.

Aryan Sougaijam

Aryan, a Manas science student, happens to be the best guitarist in AVS. His innate ability to make music out of any chord is very impressive. An aspiring doctor, and having a good academic record, he has a very helpful nature. His contribution to his house will surely be missed. I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Aryaman Bajaj

Aryaman is a very amiable person and has always been very supportive of his peers and juniors in every way he can. His positive attitude towards life and his relaxed personality was loved by all his mentors. Aryaman is a true embodiment of a public school boy, who understood how to strike a balance between academics and co-curricular activities. As a tennis captain, he tried his level best to improve this sport in many ways.

Astha Jain

The girl with the sweetest voice and winsome ways, Astha was most diligent in everything that she did and gave countless hours of dedicated service and leadership to the House. A much organised girl with high levels of accountability to self and the school, Astha was a good team player and most selfless. Like the lyrics of the school song, she could be the strength to a weaker one and with love and kindness touch all around her. Her presence will be dearly missed.

Ayush Das

Obedient, respectful, compliant are what come to mind when I think of Ayush. A quiet boy who does not give up and makes tireless efforts in academics and other aspects of school life. He has slowly become independent and I am sure with experience, he will gain more confidence and be what he wants to be!

Ayussh Rizal

Yet another cool 'science' in my classroom. Ayussh was a very calm guy in my class who often sat near the teacher's desk to avoid dozing off. He did all his prep work and used to get good marks in assessments. If physics was taught without mathematical elements he would have mastered the subject.

Baibhav Sharma

This Western Dance Captain is truly an amazing dancer! His dedication to his art is immense. No matter how the day is, during bath time you will see him doing his yoga and dance exercises. He is truly someone to look up to. A soft spoken, humble and sincere person, I wouldn't be surprised if this underdog of Dhansiri surprised us with massive success.

Barsha Goel

Barsha has a way with her charming smile. Smiling face, mischievous looks and very academically inclined is how we have known her. She has a flair for making friends and making people around her smile with her mischievous looks and silly jokes. In the last two years, I have seen Barsha change, adapt and grow. She is a garrulous girl and enjoys good peer relationships.

Bensolo Seb

Bensolo was calm and quiet and was known as the gentlemen of the House. He always carried himself with poise and dignity. I have never seen him lose his temper, not even with his juniors. He was liked by all the juniors. He is a valuable member of the school's Basketball Squad.

Bishal Kumar Dey

A die-hard Lohitian, Bishal would go to any length to achieve the best for his House. As House Captain, he has tried his best to dispense his duties. Seeing him grow into a fine young man is a pleasure. Fun-loving and naughty, Bishal lives by the day and enjoys the company of his friends.

Bishal Medhi

Bishal has his heart in the right place and that is what matters. You sometimes see him walking all by himself, deep in thought. He's a good sort of fellow though, is a team player and is up for any challenge you throw at him. I wish him only the very best life has to offer.

Calvin Irom

A charming and exuberant young man who has a lot of positive energy around him. He is soft-spoken and never wants to get involved in any controversies. He is the most respectable student in the group. One always gets positive vibes with Calvin. He is a columnist and loves to write articles. He is very good at Skate Board sports and took part in the National SkateBoard Championship held at Patiala, Punjab.

Charmak Bagang

Cheerful, humble and helpful are the three words that come to mind whenever I think of Charmak. Having grown into a responsible Subansiri House prefect, she wore her badge proudly and managed her tenure efficiently. Her presence makes the ambience happier and positive. Her love of sport knows no bounds and is in keeping with the true spirit of an aviator.

Chesta Nowal

Diligent, courteous and persevering is how I would describe Chesta. Chesta is a strong young woman with a lot of grit and determination. She has led Jinari with an open mind and strong arms. She is a grounded person with a strong willpower. I miss you captain, especially the long, sisterly conversations at any time of the day. Wish you all the very best Chesta, the world awaits you!

Chinmoy Tamuli

Chinmoy knows what he wants and uses his talents with the sole purpose of achieving his goals. His silent presence is piercing and undeniable. He possesses the sillage of a person who does not have any dependencies. He does not mind walking alone and does not suffer fools. He stands up, speaks his mind and then gets on with the work at hand. I wish him the best life has to offer.

Chumki Biswas

Chumki, a Jinari science student, is a very helpful and dedicated girl. An aspiring engineering student, her punctuality in completing all her work in time is very commendable. Being popular among her peers for her virtuous ways, her absence will truly be felt by all of us. I wish her all the good luck for her future endeavours and a steady recovery from her leg injury.

Claudia N Marak

There lies a dynamic, evolving person behind the quiet veneer of Claudia. It is wonderful to watch her step out of her comfort zone each time to try out something new and do so beautifully. She is ready to unfurl her wings and take the world by storm. She will have written a poem for all her moods and one to spare for the world. She is a ray of sunshine meant to brighten her corner of the world. She is a star and she is ready to shine.

Dev Agarwal

Dev's love for butter and sugar is known far and wide. Jokes apart, he responds appropriately when corrected and remains focused on the activity at hand. He is kind, respectful and helpful when interacting with his peers and elders. I really liked his company and wish him all the best for his future.

Dhrity Khersa

Dhrity to me is an extremely well-behaved and sincere student. She is very organised by nature. The way she has maintained all her notebooks has always amazed me. I believe art is her passion as I have seen her enjoying it. I wish her all the happiness and success in life.

Divanshu Sikaria

He is a very kind-hearted person and respects his school and his teachers. As Chess Captain, Divanshu worked diligently and always thought about the growth of Chess in the school, coming up with innovative ideas and plans to promote the sport in the school. He helped organise Inter-House Chess competitions in systematic ways. He was always ready to help his peers and his juniors.

Divyaj Agarwal

Divyaj loves those horses and is keen on getting into the NDA. He is ambitious and knows what cards he holds. He is idealistic but pragmatic too. He has his fingers in many pies and as a public school boy, this is good. I wish him all the best in the years ahead – may all his dreams come true.

Dozee Wangchuk Bhutia

Dozee, a science student from Manas House has contributed to his House in basketball and volleyball among others. His cool-headed nature and casual approach towards his studies, makes him a student giving answers to everything but academics. An ambitious doctor in the making, I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Dukkir Ete

I first met Dukkir Ete as the sweet, little dishevelled (due to a recent brawl) boy, somewhat lost in his own world. Later, when I became Dukkir's tutor, I discovered that behind all his short temper and rebellious attitude is a very loving and kind hearted boy ever ready to help everyone. I remember Dukkir coming running down the corridor and hugging me, proudly announcing it was his birthday and asking me for a chocolate. It is this bond of filial love that will always tie me to this often misunderstood boy, who is a fantastic footballer, genuine sportsman and a free spirit in every sense.

Farecha Ambreen

Farecha to me has always been a very versatile individual who is excited to take up new challenges and give her best in it. She has a mind of her own and possesses excellent leadership skills. She is kind on the inside and out, but doesn't hesitate to be the solid pillar of support for her juniors when she needs to. I believe debating is her forte. I wish her all the happiness and success in life.

Gaurav Kumar Beria

'Change is the only constant'. In Gaurav's case I beg to differ! Since he stepped into school, he has had an omnipresent smile and polite demeanour. You may not notice him at first when you enter a room but he holds his own with his quiet presence. Do not be fooled by the silent exterior as it is a mere façade for a very strong individual whose simplicity is a powerful weapon! Needless to add, I shall miss seeing him. All the best Gaurav

Gengam Dulom

It has been a pleasure to have seen Gengam's enthusiasm, positivity and maturity in my class. She is responsible, works well within a group and shows appreciation for the efforts of her classmates. Her ability to create an ambience of joy and happiness for all with her fun-loving nature is what makes her unique and popular among her peers. She is always willing to walk that extra mile in order to complete her projects and this combination of talent and determination is a strong recipe for success.

Grishm Ghosh

Grishm is a sauve young man and of late, has been known for his NEW AVATAR. He has many friends and he has a following of sorts with a good number of admirers as well. With great acting skills, he is also a dedicated house prefect of Lohit. He is a very hardworking and empathetic person. I wish him the best.

Harshi Kashyap

What a blessed artist she is. We love her paintings because there's always some message within them. She is hardworking and talented. It does not matter what she draws, she makes every detail count. We are so proud of her. Keep doing your best

Harshit Sharma

Harshit is a true manasite at heart. He carries with him a confident smile that lights up the room. He is a very talented artist and is well known to the school community for the same. Harshit has grown into a very capable and responsible young man during his time in AVS. I'm sure his absence will truly be felt.

Hemadri Purbi

There is never a dull moment with her around. She was a responsible House Captain, and her sincerity and honesty towards the House and School were evident in her actions. We shall miss her lively presence on campus.

Harshvardhan Keyal

Harsh, being the media captain as well as the archery captain, has lifted the bar of AVS media. A science student, he is very passionate about sleeping in class especially at all angles. His smiles and his helpful nature compensates for him always being late to class. He has been a great contribution to Manas House. His cool headed nature alongside his funny jokes for any situation will truly be missed. I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Hayishan Odyuo

Hayishan is a true 'science' and philanthropist, he used to do his prep for his friends who were in urgent need. He has an immense and unique gravitational pull in which people used to get attracted from ground floor to first floor. A smart, handsome, focussed and attentive student of my class who never asked a single question in my class but understood everything which was told and untold. He will be remembered as a silent inspiring 'science'.

Himika Rani Borah

A silent observer, her face decorated with a smile and a twinkle in her eyes tells many stories unsung. In her silence, there is a storm of aspirations and feelings of hope. Sending her off with a wish for all her dreams to come true and for joy to glisten in her hope-filled eyes.

Hiyaneijemmy Das

Hiya firmly believes in herself and therefore nothing is impossible for her. A debater par excellence, writer, reader, singer, instrumentalist, academic achiever, Hiyaneijemmy is an absolute genius with an indomitable will. She is a high achiever who accumulates small but consistent habits that lead to results that were once unimaginable. Dutiful, sharp-witted and sanguine is Hiya to me. I will fondly remember our current affairs based discussions in class. Your only limit is you, Hiya. Go chase your dreams!

Hrideek Choudhury

Hrideek is the lighting soul of Dhansiri. His popularity in the house is undeniable. He is a fun-loving and friendly individual who does not fail to lighten up the mood of any room into which he walks. With his quirky demeanour and passion for cricket, I'm sure Hrideek will reach far across the world. I wish him the very best.

Jahnvi Rathi

Quiet and serene, Jhanvi's smile is beatific and can light up the darkest of days. Sincere and dedicated, she is ready to see and explore the world and grow on her own terms and turf. Jhanvi's strength lies in her patience and strength of mind. Quick to laughter she can be relied upon to find a way out of any crisis. Calm and armed with perseverance, Jhanvi is ready to own her world.

Jaskeerat Singh

A passionate musician and a talented guitarist, it has been a joy to see Jaskeerat grow from a new boy at Namdang to a young man adept at dispensing his duties as Cultural Captain. He has shouldered his responsibilities passionately and was a team player in organising school functions

Jeevesh Agarwal

Jeevesh will be remembered as a true blue public school boy who carried himself with a dignity and humility beyond his years. A sportsman par excellence, he personified the values of sportsmanship in every sphere of life at school. An intellectual, he always had his sights firmly set on the big picture. A true leader, House Captain of Dhansiri, he gave much time and mentoring to his boys. Jeevesh will remain as one of the most congenial, sanguine and reliable in one's memory.

Jikke Kikum

Compliant, obedient and highly respectful are what suit Jikke a lot. Academically inclined, Jikke has a great flair for extracurricular activities like Public Speaking, Debating, Creative Writing and Round Square events. He is a student who responds to close interaction with teachers and peers. Mischievous in his ways, an ambivert and sometimes quirky, Jikke has managed to pave his way to many hearts.

Julie Elangbam

Julie is one of those students who never monopolised the limelight but one who worked tirelessly behind the scenes. She is very creative, observant and extremely sensitive - the ideal science student! She was extremely well-mannered and courteous. She has the ability to dig in and stand her ground for things that matter the most to her. I am sure we are going to hear great things about her in future

Karleen Tok

Karleen is a courageous, smart and an ambitious boy. I have seen him working on himself from his lower classes to attain the highest student position in school and I appreciate him for securing the position of the School Captain. He has a fine balance of talents in all the three spheres- academics, sports and culture. As a School Captain, he carries out his duties with diligence and a sense of accountability. I wish him all the best.

Kekhriesino Meyase

Meyase has a mind as sharp as a katana and a heart that encompasses a universe within itself. Unhesitant and unapologetic, she was the famed Editor-in-Chief of AVE, balancing deadlines even as she kept pace with the world around her. She is the Boss Lady whose stories will remain enshrined in the room above the library. For all who have known her and will know her, life will never be 'As it was'.

Keshav Bhati

The art of being a gentleman is learnt and Bhati is an ardent student. Always the devil's advocate, the best way to know this quiet young man is to catch a conversation with him. Witty and charming, few would guess at the melee of mischief brewing behind the smile. Bhati's world moves at an unhurried pace and while he may not be certain where the roads lead, he is confident that he will reach where he seeks to go, in time. Ready to step out and own his world, Bhati is a man on the move.

Khyojamo Ezung

Khyojamo joined us in Grade 11 as a science student, with a flair for athletics and badminton. Being a very well-behaved student, he has settled comfortably in AVS and has contributed greatly to Lohit House through his western music skills and sportsmanship. The school will miss him for his lovable and respectful nature towards everyone. I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Kibriya Yesmin Ullah

They say that 'virtue and genuine graces in themselves speak what no words can utter'. Kibriya personifies genuineness. She is a happy-go-lucky girl who is able to find happiness in the smallest of things. The positivity she surrounds herself with directs her to see opportunities instead of obstacles. Thoughtful, caring and chirpy, Kibriya will bring comfort and succour in anyone's hour of need. Her sense of humour is something we have always looked forward to in class

Kohrodi N Sangtam

The boy with impeccable manners, Kohrodi is a blessing to have in class. He is obedient, courteous, down to earth and phlegmatic. The calmness with which he handles situations is commendable. Come what may, Kohrodi will always stand up for what is right. Talent they say should never go to waste and Kohrodi manifests the same through his basketball and dancing skills. On a lighter note, his popularity among the juniors knows no bounds. Stay the same humble person that you are Kohrodi because 'greatness loves gratitude'.

Krishnav Kanoria

He is a talented sportsman making his presence felt in almost all the sporting arenas. He is a passionate boy who has always motivated his peers and juniors to contribute to the House. He is humble and simple at heart, the reflection of which can be seen and felt in his disarming smile.

Kristanu Uzir

As Headboy, Kristanu lived with evenly balanced values and a healthy outlook towards life, carrying the ideal combination of a public school boy.

Kushagra Dehlia

Kushagra was the one of the most intelligent minds which I have come across but he was too occupied with non academic matters. He would sometimes just wake up in my class to give the correct answer. His lame but funny jokes and comments will always haunt the science classroom. He will be remembered as a smart 'sciencee'.

Laksh Gupta

Laksh, one word that comes to mind is affable! Clean at heart, lovely to talk to - mischievous and playful, but courteous and respectful at the same time. He is the type of student that teachers remember long after they leave. I am sure that he will achieve his 'laksh' and be successful in life.

Lavanya Jindal

Lavanya is a responsible and wise girl who is always ready to carry on her responsibilities! She is a dedicated sports player who has the ability to perform and excel. She has grown into an outstanding individual who has excelled in all areas of her school life. She is an inspiration for many of her juniors and motivates them to perform their best! I wish her all the very best for all her future endeavours

Leeza Sharma

With hard work and perseverance, Leeza has grown to be a confident aviator. She has always been responsible and never shied away when shown the right way. It is her humble demeanour that will help her grow and prosper in life. Her simplicity makes her different and adorable, making her presence felt every time she is around.

Limhachan Patton

Limhachan made me colour blind with his presence. I was not able to distinguish between red and blue. With many lucrative offers in his life he decided to remain focussed towards science subjects. He used to get lost in my lectures so many times that he forgot to take the notes in class. He will be remembered as a handsome 'sciencee'.

Leiki Choden:

A leader who knows the way, goes the way and shows the way is Leiki for me. If she has the firm resolve to do something, she does it without giving it a second thought. For Leiki, if one can't figure out one's purpose, one should figure out one's passion. For one's passion will lead one right into one's purpose. Compassionate, fierce and forthright, Leiki is a powerhouse. She's her friends' backbone and only her near and dear ones know that behind the bold and undeterred nature, there lies an emotional side. You are a diamond Leiki, no one can break you.

Limeka Hutoi Agemi

We can see how passionate Limeka is about art. She knows exactly what she wants to create and does it to perfection. Her ability to paint and create is impressive. She knows how to convey a message through her artwork. With each new drawing she seems to be getting better.

Luvish Sharma

Luvish is a courageous, truthful and an honest boy. His understanding of values and life skills is something that sets him apart. He is one boy who walks his talk and believes in leading by example. He is meticulous and responsible. I wish him all the best for his future and may the blessings of God surround him all the days of his life.

Mahita Jindal

When students apply to foreign universities we are often asked "what are the first words to describe this candidate"? I had no trouble when thinking of Mahita - Intelligent, well-mannered, responsible and humble are adjectives that best describe her. These qualities will take her far in the future.

Manalisa Narzary

I have yet to see her frazzled. Always calm and composed, she is a lady of few words, but speaks up when needed. She has a creative and inquisitive mind. She has the aura of a saint, for the lack of a better word! I am sure that she is going to do great things in life.

Manisa Kalita

Chirpy, mischievous and filled with muffled laughter is how I can describe Manisa. An attempt to express herself in a little broken Hindi and sometimes not at all, makes Manisa delightful company. Not too academically inclined, sitting in the corner of the class, she is a bag of potential and has her own way of paving her way to hearts, especially those of her peers. She is a pleasant and extremely respectful girl.

Migam Anгу

Rarely do we have the opportunity to come face to face with unadulterated innocence in a young adult. Migam's world shimmers like a glow around her, keeping her protected while the rest watch her in awe. Like a mythical creature she carries magic in her brushes adding a dash of colour to her surroundings with a randomness that sits perfectly with the unpredictability of the times. Migam is a burst of happiness and she carries within her the power of such immense faith in all things that knowing her is knowing someone special.

Mohammad Suhayb Ahmad

A latecomer to Dhansiri, Suhayb started off as a serious, sober class 9 junior and then transitioned into this burly chap with funny rejoinders for suggestions. He can be exasperating! However, if anyone is feeling down in the dumps, he is always there to lend a shoulder to cry on.

Nokaulong Angh

Nokaulong is an enthusiastic basketball player and a part of the school's basketball team. He is known for his shooting skills and is the 'coolest' in Lohit. His technological prowess is an envy to many

Ojas Krish Venkatesh Ayapilla

Ojas is the proverbial maverick. He is a writer, thinker and the typical argumentative Indian. The most interesting thing about Ojas lies in his ability to tell a story. Perhaps therein lies the magic of his very existence. He is an excellent orator, but he does not believe in writing a complete sentence in the answer script. Writing just the key words and yet scoring excellent grades is just his style. He is ready for the world and may the world be ready for him.

Om Kumar Gupta

It has been a pleasure being Om's teacher for the past two years. Ironical though, he has not been a high-end achiever or an academically inclined child, yet he has managed to charm people around him with his pleasing smile and chivalrous demeanour. Grades are important; however, Om has proved that politeness and respectful behaviour go a long way and although his mischievous ways sometimes get in the way, his confidence will get him there.

Parakh Pratim Saikia

Parakh Pratim Saikia is an extremely sincere and an enthusiastic student who always comes forward to help others. He is very kind and gentle with his juniors and his classmates. As the Boys' Badminton Captain of the school, he has led well and has brought laurels to his school by winning many tournaments. I wish him well for his future endeavours.

Pema Chhoedron Khrimé

The ever-smiling, pretty girl heading the girls' Volleyball Team, Pema is one of the most consistent aviators standing steady and strong throughout her journey in school. She will be remembered for her helpful, understanding and loving nature. Her passion for sports has always been impressive and the laurels she brought to school has always made us proud.

Prateeti Ghosh

Prateeti is one of those who is self-motivated and is a conscientious, hard-working student. She shows initiative and looks for new ways to get involved; using her instincts to deal with matters independently and in a positive way. Setting an example of excellence in behaviour and cooperation, she displays good citizenship by assisting other students which is a great sign of her leadership quality. I wish her the best future

Pratyush Chandra Basistha

Pratyush is a carefree, smart, joyful and stress-free individual. His enduring love for online games, undying passion for basketball and superficial seriousness in academics are three unique traits one can find in him. He is someone who doesn't let demons haunt him. I wholeheartedly wish him goodness in life.

Priyadarshni Gogoi

Priyadarshni may come across as being easily influenced and with little drive. However, she has a quiet way of getting things done, she has no ego and is willing to make mistakes, stumble, fall but she will certainly get up and succeed. She will go a long way and I wish her well.

Raghav Agarwal

Debating, MUN, smart – these are the first words that come to mind to describe Raghav. I have seen him maturing from a confused young boy to a confident, mature and responsible teenager. He has brought lots of laurels in the field of debating and MUN. He possesses good leadership qualities. I admire his ability to perform consistently in academics and no less when it comes to culture.

Riiriti Odelia Lato Sohlija

Riiriti is a very elegant and sophisticated young woman. She carries herself with dignity and modesty. She is very hardworking and the music she composes is an absolute delight. She has a sweet voice and her skill in music showed the depth and breadth of her imagination. I will always remember her singing and entralling the audience with her musical talent. I will miss listening to her rough music sketches and her vast knowledge of different genres. All the best Riiriti, go take on the world!

Ritesh Baruah

Ritesh is a fun-loving, carefree and a playful boy in the house. He is loved a lot by his peers and was loved by his seniors too. He was known as the fastest runner in school for a while. His love of football is something for which he is known. I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Sahil More

Illegible handwriting, it is said, marks a very sharp mind. Sahil tries hard everyday to be better and better. A sincere, sober student, who can speak his mind; I hope he finds his passion in life

Saifi Raheek

Holding the most coveted EM prefect portfolio, Saifi was a dynamic scientific student who actively engaged in all of our school's events. She was always ready to explain her delay and in the most convincing manner. She was a very calm, soft-spoken, friendly, helpful and hardworking girl of her batch. I must appreciate the way she balanced her EM work with science stream loads.

Samapda Malpani

From the day she joined the school in class 5, I have shared so many moments with Sampada that I will always keep close to my heart. Watching her receive her first scholar's tie in class 6 and going up on stage to be badged the house prefect of Jinari in class 11 has been one of my favourite things to experience. Sampada has always been a compassionate and grounded individual and throughout these years this has become her power. She is a true friend who cares for those close to her. I wish her the best in everything.

Sarai G Momin

Sarai is a quiet girl who could be the best of friends if you earned her trust. She has an immense passion for horse riding and craft. She worked silently to accomplish her goals. I miss the long walks with Sarai, her ability to inspire me as an artist and the sisterly conversations throughout the day. Wish you all the very best Sarai!

Saron Nigel Odyuo

Saron, a science student from Manas House, is a commendable basketball player and has great western music skills. His calm and composed nature makes him the most approachable person to talk to and he is liked by both his classmates and juniors. His absence on the basketball court will truly be felt. I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Shreshth Baid

"A book can't be judged by its cover." This is the proverb that comes to my mind when I think of Shreshth. At first, he looks timid but the people close to him know him for the commendable bravery he possesses. The way he has faced various challenges at this tender age has been a learning experience for myself and for people around him. His simplicity and innocence originates purely from his courage. Lots of respect and love to this young man! You will do wonders Shreshth!

Shrey Modi

Shrey is a man of few words and that is perfect because what he needs to say is conveyed through the frames he takes. The man behind the photography club at AVS, Shrey was a professional and a powerhouse of talent that will give many adults a run for their money. At the same time, he is a humble and kind person. I hope to see him click, travel, explore and learn more because there is so much Shrey has to give. May he continue to spin amazing stories through his brilliant photographs!

Shrivansh Agrawal

Our Academic and Squash Captain is a very well-natured, punctual person. His love for technology has led him to be an aspiring computer science engineer. This Red Tie holder from Manas House has selective eating habits. He is someone who has overcome adversity and his absence will truly be felt. I wish him good luck for his future endeavours

Shrutika Parajuli

Cheerful and carefree, Shrutika, is a ray of sunshine full of laughter with a twinkle in her eye. Unaffected by the swirl of time and its demands, she keeps a pace that allows her to savor her days in a way that could sell as a secret. The trick lies in the music in her ears and the dance in her steps that helps her see the world as she perceives it, minus all things superfluous.

Silpi Bora

Silpi, a science student from Subansiri House, is a great dancer who has contributed immensely to her house. Her penchant for beauty and wellness, can be seen through her everyday essentials, a mirror and her hair brush. She is very approachable and is a great person with whom to talk. Her happy nature outside class shines bright through her smile and the school will miss seeing it everyday. I wish her good luck for her future endeavours

Subha Paul

The Volleyball Captain is a commerce student from Manas House. His passion for fitness is his first priority, and his punctuality can be seen more in the gym than arriving for classes. He is a well natured and an approachable person and converses easily with all. The school will miss him and I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Suhani Agarwala

Cheerful and amiable with a warm personality, Suhani always wore a smile. Hardworking and eager to learn, she fit right into the school, never feeling that she was a new student. Her nature is a true reflection of her name - pleasant!

Tadar Yajum

A handful of students show the amount of positive change in themselves like Yajum has shown. She is a completely transformed human being now. Yajum is a very capable young woman with tremendous leadership and sportsmanship skills. Her contributions to Kopili are undeniable during her tenure as a prefect. She has definitely made her own mark in the hearts of the juniors of the house. She will be missed tremendously

Tanish Hansaria

Tanish got along with just about everyone in the school. He never lost his temper with anyone. He is an extremely good soul who will be missed by everyone. He was an excellent academician. I am confident that he will do us proud in the years to come and I wish him all the best.

Tanisha Surana

With her alluring aura of confidence, she will never settle for less. "You create beauty with your attitude, you make an impression with your behaviour, you make statements with your elegance & scream out with your actions". Wishing you all the success in the world.

Temjemremla Jamir

Tem, as she is fondly called, is made of all things bright and all things nice. Quiet and unassuming, she sees the best in all things around her. She has the uncanny ability to reach out and help people be the best version of themselves. A person of few words, she makes up for it with unbridled laughter that is perpetually threatening to bubble over and ease the world around her. She has it in her to step out and away from her comfort zone each time to discover a little more of herself and all that awaits her.

Tenzin Peldon Thungon

Peldon has always been the first person to wish me on my birthday every year. Although she is someone who generally keeps to herself, I have always shared a great bond with her. She has grown up to be a loyal friend, kind at heart, a good listener, talented in various fields and true to herself. She always has good intentions and I am proud to see her grow up to be the person she is now. I wish her the best for everything the future holds for her.

Tikham Natung:

A Cristiano Ronaldo fan, for Tikham, soccer is a religion. He has carved a niche for himself in the AVS soccer world. He became the School Sports Captain, adding his name to the list of legends at AVS. An ardent lover of the game, he never misses an opportunity to be on the field.

Utkarsh Jajodia

Utkarsh Jajodia personifies diligence in all spheres of his life. Intellectual abilities and a measured approach in his mannerisms make him a unique student. Fun and entertainment are as much an integral part of his day as is academic rigour. He works with determination and drive to excel as a team player. Benevolence illuminates his relationship with his juniors and trust adorns his interaction with his peers. I wish him success, joy and fulfilment.

Varshaa Rajkumari

A charming, soft-spoken and respectful girl with a lot of enthusiasm, I appreciate Varshaa's quality work, motivation to do well, positive attitude and I have enjoyed being her tutor. Varshaa has done a fantastic job in art and has worked very hard. I am so proud of Varshaa and wish her well for her future endeavours.

Vinayak Kumar Kandoi

The most dedicated sportsman of the cricket team who started playing this sport since class 6, Vinayak is an amiable and soft spoken boy. He always had a deep sense of purpose and integrity. He was an outgoing and gregarious person whose company was loved by all. As his coach, I will miss him on the field where he used to turn matches in favour of AVS.

Yash Raj Agarwal

Yash Raj is a trustworthy and an honest individual. He is someone who has learned priceless lessons through mistakes and has eventually made himself a better version of himself. His skills in photography are praiseworthy, with a dash of expertise in cinematography too. He is a studious student too. I wish him all the best for his future and may his dreams come true.

Yash Vardhan Agarwalla

Yash has always been the most disciplined boy of the House and has taken the responsibility as a dependable and caring senior. He is a very polite and sincere boy for which he has always been appreciated by his peers and his juniors. He is a person anyone would love to have in their House.

Yashodhara Mahanta

It has been my good fortune to have a student with such intelligence, poise and grace - and the bonus - a beautiful voice. She has shown exemplary leadership skills as the Subansiri House Prefect and never failed to rise up to the occasion. Yashodhara will soon be ready to take on the world - but is the world ready for her?

Yajvin Prithany

The Music Captain is a commerce student from Manas House. His love for music and cricket is undeniable and his contribution to his House in these fields is appreciable. His interests include his hairstyle and a certain Jinari girl. His helpful nature will surely be missed among his peers and juniors. I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Yangchen Lhamu Khunjuju

As the House Captain of Subansiri, Yangchen has led from the front, working tirelessly with enthusiasm, taking the House to victory in many events. Yangchen is always present during practice sessions, encouraging the participants with positivity and a smile. Though she prefers to sleep early, she has often stayed up late just to give support to the participants during practice. She has shown leadership through her actions. I wish her success in all her future endeavours.

Yuvraj Bhuyan

Yuvraj, the prince of Narnia was always confused with my handwriting. I never made him miss mathematics in my class, though he tried his best. Always well dressed with nicely combed, bouncy hair. His presence always made me do my work sincerely without jumping any mathematical steps. He will be remembered as the 'prince of science'.

Yuvraj Sureka

Yuvraj is an active member of the school community and has shown his dedication towards music and equestrian activities. I have known him at the House level as well and have always found him to be straightforward and easy to speak with. Yuvraj has shown a sense of maturity and I am sure he will do the House and the School proud. He will be remembered fondly by his juniors and peers.

Supriya Boro

From a rather confused class 5 girl, who seemed puzzled at every step, Supriya has emerged a poised and confident young lady who is ready to conquer the world. She is an affectionate girl and I have seen many of her peers take comfort in her. I can confidently say that she holds a special place in the hearts of those who knew her in Tihu. She has confidently overcome many challenges and obstacles and has gracefully taken everything in her stride. She shall be missed by one and all.

Darsh Agarwalla

Darsh is a reserved, sensitive and respectful boy. He was the silent senior of the house, he was known for his dining etiquette and gentle approach in dealing with people. He was well-liked by his juniors and his peers. I hope Darsh realises his passion in life and succeeds at it. Wish you the very best in this world, Darsh.

Jiya Sharma

Jiya, a humanities student from Subansiri, has a commendable flair for singing, dancing and sports. A very helpful girl, Jiya has contributed a lot to her House. She has a cool temperament and casual outlook towards life, but is very sensitive towards her friends, peers and juniors. Her juniors and peers look up to her for advice and her absence will truly be felt. I wish her all the best for her future endeavours.

Lozin Techii

Lozin Techii is a passionate footballer whose skills in the game are well known. Though he is an introvert, his true cheery self is seen in the house with his peers. I have had the joy of having long interactions with him a few times and I have found him to be a serious and empathetic boy. I wish him all the best for his future. It was a pleasure to have him in Namdang.

Shivraj Daimary

Shivraj is an honest and a reliable ground player. Though he joined the school in Grade 9, he was successful in establishing himself as an efficient leader upon whom one can rely. He is one of the best footballers in school and one can only be filled with awe to see his energy on the football field. I wish him all the best for his future.
