KOPILI HOUSE

Kopili is a house that has always lived up to its motto: "To Strive, To Seek, and Never Give Up." Representing the lioness, each girl is a courageous and talented individual who always shines. The girls are groomed to be self-respecting, with values that would make their families proud. They have strived exceptionally hard throughout the year, giving their best in all spheres of school life. In Kopili, each girl is instilled with values and life lessons that will stay with them throughout their lives and help them when they leave this safe bubble. They are taught how to multitask and work in different situations under various pressures. Kopili, as a house, has always produced well-disciplined girls with strong values, striving to bring out the best in every girl. In Kopili, playing fair and square and giving your best has always been our top priority. Learning from our mistakes and celebrating each other's achievements and hard work is what Kopili believes in. Above all, Kopili has always been a happy and contented house where every girl feels a sense of belonging and inclusion

LOHIT HOUSE

Lohit House is one of the oldest houses in The Assam Valley School, instituted on 1st April 1995. The House aims to inculcate in each Lohitian respect, responsibility, and service, values symbolised by the colour blue. Focusing on developing the mind, body, and spirit of its members, the House motto, "First Deserve Then Desire," inspires individuals to strive for excellence. The Blue House strives to perform its best in all fields, with hard work reflected in every aspect of school life.

The House is dedicated to upholding the vision of our founder, Mr. Brij Mohan Khaitan: "I want to prove that a good school will produce a good student, and that a good student will produce a good citizen, and a good citizen will produce a good country." This vision is evident in the achievements and growth of the Lohit House members.

DHANSIRI HOUSE

Established in 1998, Dhansiri House embodies the motto “to strive, to seek, and never to give up.” In today’s fiercely competitive environment, this motto resonates with everyone seeking to excel. The house cultivates a sense of brotherhood through collaboration, friendship, and a steadfast commitment to the house spirit. Adapting to modern challenges while honouring age-old traditions, Dhansiri continuously pushes boundaries and ventures into uncharted territory. Each year, the house’s growth is fuelled by its unwavering determination to set new standards. The colour green symbolises rebirth and optimism, reflecting Dhansiri’s ability to rise above challenges and soar to even greater heights, much like the legendary phoenix.

MANAS HOUSE

Manas House, the oldest house at The Assam Valley School, was named after the Manas National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site and biosphere reserve in Assam. This house embodies the values of resilience, strength, and natural beauty, mirroring the characteristics of the park it is named after. More than just a division for organisational purposes, Manas House is a family that promotes personal growth, leadership skills, and a strong sense of belonging.

The members of Manas House, comprising students from various grades, form a tight-knit unit where older students mentor the younger ones, fostering a culture of mutual respect and cooperation. Led by a dedicated team of housemasters, housemistresses, and elected student leaders, Manas House excels in organising activities, maintaining discipline, and encouraging participation in inter-house competitions.

NAMDANG HOUSE

Namdang House serves as a cornerstone in the holistic development of boys at The Assam Valley School. It fosters a nurturing environment where they can unwind, build strong bonds with like-minded peers, and explore their potential through a diverse range of sporting and cultural activities. The camaraderie and team spirit within Namdang House are truly commendable, and it is immensely satisfying to witness the boys in yellow excel not only in inter-house competitions but also in their academic pursuits.

The success of Namdang House is a testament to the dedication of our outstanding staff. Our tutors provide not only academic guidance but also a listening ear, offering support and constructive feedback that empowers the boys to learn and grow. This year, Namdang House bagged the Sports Cup and the RB Magor Trophy after a gap of nine years. Additionally, the house retained the School Captain and the Cultural Captain positions for the third consecutive year. The School Captain is Aarnav Dutta, the Cultural Captain is Anikaith A. Joshi, and the Event Management Head is Laditya Keshan.
