The Results of the debate were as follows:

Most Promising Speaker: Natasha Billimoria (The Assam Valley School)

Best Speaker: Aliden Ovung (The Assam Valley School)

Best Speaker of the Tournament: Govind Keshari (Sunbeam English School)

Runners Up: The Shri Ram School

Winner: The Assam Valley School

QUIZZING SOCIETY

CAPTAIN: KICHU KATH

In the Quizzing activity, participants listen carefully to questions, analyze the options, and respond with the best answers. This process encourages critical thinking, quick recall, and teamwork. Quizzing helps learn new facts, improve problem-solving skills and builds confidence as well as focus. The students also participate in setting up weekly quizzes and share interesting facts with the other students. The Inter-House Quiz competitions organised by the Quizzing Society creates a platform for the four brother and sister houses to face off against each other in a battle of wits.

ICT

This year, the ICT department brilliantly combined creativity and technical skills, bringing together students passionate about technology and innovation. At the highly competitive IT Fest, where multiple schools participated, our students performed exceptionally well, securing top positions in various topics such as video editing, digital poster making and IT quizzes. Their success was a testament to their dedication and the excellent guidance from their mentors.

A standout moment was the Founders' exhibition, which amazed visitors with its advanced use of technology and innovative projects. The exhibition showcased the students' ability to apply cutting-edge tools creatively, highlighting their problem-solving skills and forward-thinking ideas.

This year's activities not only enhanced the students' technical expertise but also inspired them to push boundaries while working in a team, making the ICT department's efforts one of the most memorable and impactful highlights of the year.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

SECRETARY GENERAL: URVEE RATHI

The MUN Society of Assam Valley School has truly flourished in recent years, evolving into a beacon of excellence and determination. With each passing year, the quality of AVS MUN has reached new heights, thanks to the passion and commitment of its members. The mission was clear: to spread awareness about Model United Nations and make it a thriving activity in the school. Today, that vision is a reality, with over hundred students contributing to the society's success. Our delegation has proudly represented AVS at prestigious MUNs both in India and internationally, including the Kohima IIMUN, SciMUN, Oxford MUN at Flame University, and the Yale MUN in South Korea. The dedication and hard work of our students has earned them well-deserved awards, making this journey unforgettable and truly inspiring while making them aware of global issues

AVSMUN

The Assam Valley School hosted the Assam Valley School Model United Nations (AVSMUN) 2025 from 17th to 19th July 2025, bringing together young leaders from across the country to engage in thought-provoking discussions, debates, and diplomacy.

This year's MUN witnessed the participation of 10 schools, including AVS. The other participating schools were:

- Royal Global School, Guwahati
- Sanskriti The Gurukul, Guwahati
- Assam Rifles Public School, Shillong
- Hollotoli School, Dimapur

- Livingstone Foundation International, Dimapur
- Ratankumar Memorial School, Imphal
- Vellore International School, Chennai
- Jain International Residential School, Bangalore
- Scindia Kanya Vidyalaya, Gwalior

The event featured a total of 190 delegates who deliberated in 9 committees: UNSC, UNHRC, SFC, HCC, DISEC, UNEP, Lok Sabha, Video Game World Leaders' Conference, and IPC.

The theme for AVSMUN 2025 was "Embrace Unity, Celebrate Diversity," which aimed to encourage students to develop global perspectives while respecting cultural and ideological differences. Delegates from various schools showcased exceptional debating, negotiating and leadership skills, making the event a true learning platform.

Students from participating schools, as well as many Aviators, secured prestigious positions in different committees, highlighting the competitive and collaborative spirit of the conference.

The overall results for the conference were as follows:

- The Most Promising Delegation: Vellore International School, Chennai
- The Best Delegation: Hollotoli School, Dimapur

The success of AVSMUN 2025 is a testament to the dedication of the organizing committee, the enthusiasm of the delegates, and the spirit of collaboration and diplomacy that defined the event.

CRAFT, DESIGN & TECHNOLOGY

CAPTAIN: ROKOVOR NAKHRO

The Craft, Design and Technology department serves as both an activity and a subject, nurturing creativity and inspiring students to explore innovative ideas, hone practical skills and express themselves artistically. Through engaging hands-on projects and collaborative work, students are encouraged to think critically and communicate effectively with their peers. The department also places a strong emphasis on sustainability and responsible resource management. By developing these essential skills, the department plays a crucial part in preparing students to bring their ideas to life. In addition, the department has participated in numerous workshops, organized assistance programs, and arranged several field trips to further enrich students' learning experiences and design thinking abilities.

ART DEPARTMENT

CAPTAIN: HARSITA BARAL

Art, as both a subject and a creative activity, plays a vital role in fostering self-expression among students. Through the medium of art, students are encouraged to translate their thoughts, feelings, and unique perspectives onto a canvas, allowing them to communicate ideas that might be difficult to express through words alone. The Art Department is deeply committed to nurturing this creative spirit by providing a supportive environment and ample opportunities for students to explore various forms of artistic expression. In addition, the department actively participates in several IPSC events throughout the year. These events not only enable students to showcase their artistic talents on larger platforms but also help them interact with peers from other schools, gain inspiration and develop a greater appreciation for the diverse world of art.

INTER HOUSE ART & POTTERY

The Inter-House Lower School Art and Pottery Competition was held at AVS on February 2, 2025, and it showcased the diverse talents of young artists in the school community. The event featured two exciting categories: Painting and Clay Modelling. In the Painting category, students were challenged to express their creative visions by exploring the theme “Travel Diaries.” They used a variety of techniques and colours to capture the essence of memorable journeys and imaginative landscapes, transforming their personal experiences into visual narratives. Meanwhile, the Clay Modelling category focused on the theme “Flower Composition in Relief Work,” where participants demonstrated their skill in sculpting and design by creating intricate, three-dimensional floral compositions.

This competition not only encouraged artistic expression but also fostered a deeper appreciation for the arts among all the participants.

Results are as follows

- First position: Bhoroli-Lohit
- Second position: Jinari-Manas
- Third position: Kopili-Dhansiri

SRIJANYAM

In the heart of Assam, surrounded by hills and open skies, The Assam Valley School has always been a place where tradition and imagination walk hand in hand. Within this vibrant campus, the 8th Edition of Srijanyam—Art and Design Fest, found its home once again- a celebration of creativity in all its forms.

At the helm of this year's Srijanyam stood Rokovor Nakhro, the CDT Captain, whose dedication and quiet resilience became the backbone of the event. With meticulous planning, an unyielding sense of responsibility, and sheer grit, he ensured that every detail was cared for and every moment unfolded seamlessly. His leadership reflected not only discipline, but also a deep love for the legacy he was entrusted with. Behind him, guiding and shaping this tradition, were the teachers whose vision and commitment made Srijanyam what it is today. It began under the stewardship of Dr. Priyanka Joshi, and has since flourished under the care of Mr. Andrasphera Kharmawlong, Mr. Shiluti Longkumer, Mrs. Mampi Das, Mr. Bijit Kumar Das, and Mr. Harinarayan Baruah. Their tireless efforts and belief in the power of creativity have kept this tradition alive, allowing it to grow into the prestigious celebration it has become today.

Here, schools from across the country gather to let art and design speak for them. A sculptor's chisel shaping stone, the bold lines of a lino cut, the rhythm of hands at craft, or the eye of a videographer catching moments otherwise unseen— each piece is a story, each creation a window into the boundless imagination of the young. Srijanyam is not only an event. It is an invitation to dream with eyes open, to turn thought into something tangible, and to share pieces of ourselves with the world.

For years now, this tradition has been one of AVS's proudest. And in schools like ours, traditions matter. They remind us that education is more than classrooms and lessons—it is also about giving voice to expression, about daring to create, about carrying forward a legacy where the arts are as valued as intellect.

As Srijanyam unfolded across our campus, it weaved together colours, shapes, and voices into something timeless. Art here is not simply made, it is felt, it lingers, it becomes memory.

The 8th edition of Srijanyam once again turned our campus into a gallery of dreams.

It has been nothing short of an honour, and a joy, to host.

ELECTRONIC MEDIA

The Electronic Media team at AVS is not just a department—it is a legacy. It is one of the most prestigious platforms one can be part of, known across campus for its unmatched creativity, dedication and relentless hard work. They are the storytellers of AVS. Every end-of-semester assembly has the school waiting in anticipation for AVS News. When Founders' rolls around, the Founders' documentary eternalises the three days celebrations that capture the true essence of the school. Through the years a reputation for cinematic excellence, sharp editing, and powerful narratives has been built by the Electronic Media team. Their audio-visuals speak louder than words and every frame is fuelled by passion, precision and purpose. The motto says it all: "Bridges burn, tables turn and we always live and learn."
